Director of Human Resources:

Please accept this resume as an expression of my sincere interest in obtaining a Certified Nursing Assistant position with your organization. I am confident that my experience and education have prepared me for the position that you have available, and my unique abilities will enable me to contribute significantly toward your objectives.

While my resume provides tangible facts about my professional and educational background, it cannot convey the enthusiasm and dedication with which I approach my profession. My experience as a caregiver has given me the confidence in my ability to provide consistently effective patient care. This is a very rewarding career for me and my devotion to these patients gives me the competency necessary to make a difference in their lives. Given my range of skills and knowledge, I am confident in my ability to make a positive impact in any professional setting. For the reasons mentioned, I would eagerly accept the challenge to work at your organization.

In conclusion, I would appreciate the opportunity of a personal interview, during which time we may further discuss my credentials as they relate to your needs. You may contact me at the above listed telephone number, email, or address at your earliest convenience. Thank you for your valuable time and consideration. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Robin Brault
