

Anbel Marie R. Tenorio

Oak Creek, WI 53154

414-241-4175

tenorioanbel@gmail.com

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY:

Enthusiastic Nurse with charge experience, eager to contribute to team success through hard work, attention to detail, and excellent organizational skills. Clear understanding of nursing duties and training in Electrophysiology, Pulmonary Hypertension, and Heart Failure. Motivated to learn, grow, and excel in the nursing field.

SKILLS:

- Heart Failure Management/Interventions
 - Identifying Cardiac Arrhythmias
 - Heart Monitoring
 - Initiating/Maintaining Cardiac gtt's
 - Nursing Assessment
 - Judgment and Decision Making
 - Critical Thinking
 - Charge Nurse
 - CVC/PICC Lines
 - Charting System: EPIC
-

WORK HISTORY:

Certified Nursing Assistant (October 2019 - July 2021)

Aurora St. Luke's Medical Center

- Worked alongside nurses to provide best care for patients.
- Obtained vital signs, glucometer readings, toileted patients, and assisted with feeding/bathing patients.

Registered Nurse (July 2021 - Present)

Aurora St. Luke's Medical Center (MAGNET Hospital)

- Collaborated with Physicians to quickly assess patients and deliver best and appropriate treatment for patients.
 - Educated patients, family, and caregivers on diagnosis, treatments, and disease processes.
 - Administered medications and treatment, monitored response while working with healthcare teams to adjust care plans.
 - Monitored patient condition by interpreting EKG's, identifying irregular telemetry readings, and updating team members on changes in stability or acuity.
 - Managed Cardiac/Heart Failure and Pulmonary Hypertension gtt's such as: amiodarone, cardizem, heparin, milrinone, dobutamine, Veletri, and Remodulin.
-

EDUCATION:

Alverno College, Milwaukee, WI

Bachelors of Science in Nursing (BSN)

CERTIFICATION: Basic Life Support (BLS)