SUMMARY

I have 26 years of experience, including as an Operating Room Technologist. My last job as a surgical Technician was at Lenox Hill Hospital New York from April 2003 to May 2014. My skills and experiences include: Operating Room services and patient care in the Operating Room. I also hold an Associate of Arts degree in Business Administration from American Inter-Continental University School of Business. In May 2014 I got hurt on my Job and went out on disability. Since then I underwent three surgeries including both left and right Total knee Replacement. Presently I am receiving Workers compensation benefit. I have not worked since May 23, 2014.
