

STACIE L. STONE

1170 Waldon Jones Road, Johns Island, SC 29455

Cell: 843-637-0195

staczplace@gmail.com

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Experienced Registered Nurse licensed in South Carolina. Proficient in clinical and surgical nursing practice, leadership, educator, and precepting new and returning nurses.

SKILL HIGHLIGHTS

- Strong clinical judgment and problem solving skills
- Enthusiastic self-starter
- Preventative, restorative, patient and family nursing advocate
- General surgery scrub and circulate
- Skilled in cardiac, pulmonary and vascular clinical care
- Complex problem solving skills
- Chronic disease prevention and treatment education

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Progressive Coronary Care Nurse
- Advanced Cardiac Life Support
- Basic Life Support
- Baily Family Foundation Scholarship recipient
- South University Graduate Nursing program Deans' list and Presidents list student.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

TRIDENT HOSPITAL

Charleston, SC

Progressive Coronary Care Unit

11/2014 to Current

- Staff RN on fast pace progressive care unit while providing individualized, goal-directed competent nursing care to patients and families, while interacting with other members of the healthcare team.
- Clinical and holistic nursing care provided to step-down care of post cardiothoracic surgical patients, post-interventional, cardiology, and the general medical surgical population.

MEDICAL UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA

Charleston, SC

Main Operating Room, RN

01/2014 to 10/2014

- Participated in an 8 week operating room nurse orientation program which provided the basic concepts of operating room asepsis and etiquette, circulating nurse, and scrub nursing.
- Gained new nursing clinical nursing judgment and assessment skills and knowledge in a level I trauma/transplant operating room where I served as a circulating and surgical scrub nurse for various general and trauma O.R. procedures.

Interventional Cardiology, RN

05/2010 to 01/2012

Staff nurse for post cardiovascular intervention and progressive care need patients.

- Utilized evidence-based guidelines to provide care for cardiovascular patients requiring medical and/or surgical care.

6 East Transplant Nephrology, RN

05/2008 to 08/2010

Gained in depth knowledge to provide care of patients with hepatic and renal related diseases and illness.

Developed skills and knowledge related to the management and administration of peritoneal dialysis, as well as

- post-surgical care and management of liver, kidney, and pancreas transplant population.
- Served as a clinical preceptor for new and returning nurses.

ROPER HOPSITAL

Charleston, SC

Registered Nurse, O.R.

04/2007 to 05/2008

Cardiovascular Operating Room Registered Nurse 2007

- Acquired and utilized skills as a circulating nurse in the cardiovascular operating room to provide intraoperative care to patients undergoing invasive cardiothoracic, vascular, and, pulmonary procedures.

TRIDENT MEDICAL CENTER

Charleston, SC

03/2006 to 05/2007

- Clinical staff nurse on a 12 bed close observation unit in a rural community hospital setting.
- Continued to cultivate, individualize, and personalize self-development, professional nursing knowledge, and time management skills. Sound, ethical and independent decision-making ability consistent with medical protocols.
- Conducted screening, diagnostic treatment, supportive services Monitored post-op vitals, set up PCA, fluids, reviewed post-op orders and orient patients to unit.

FAIRFAX HOSPITAL

Fairfax, VA

10/2004 to 05/2006

Registered Nurse

Successful completion of Critical Care Fellowship which included both clinical and didactic components, thereby leading to the development and refinement of the skills and knowledge to care for the progressive care patient population. Development and refinement of clinical nursing judgment and assessment skills within a large level I trauma center and teaching hospital through exposure to a variety of patients on a progressive coronary care unit. Primary patient populations included transplant, step-down, post interventional, cardiology, and the general medical surgical population.

EXPERIENCE

- Surgical Procedures and Preparation
- Patient education regarding various topics.
- Facilitated surgical patient preparation by administering proper medication, monitor and chart patients' conditions and response.
- Surgical circulator and scrub nurse for general surgical, trauma, and transplant surgeries.
- Work with interdisciplinary and intra-disciplinary teams
- Exercise delegation/management skills.
- Provide care for diverse populations, including diverse ages, gender, ethnicity, healthy-ill, and acute-chronic health states.
- Use information technologies to provide nursing care.
- Provide care along a continuum including health promotion, risk reduction, disease prevention and management as well as illness and disease management.

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

A.A.S.: NURSING

2004

Marymount University School of Nursing, Arlington, VA

GPA: Baily Family Foundation Scholarship recipient

Nursing Baily Family Foundation Scholarship recipient

CURRENT STUDENT: MSN, ED.South University School of Nursing RN to MSN, Ed, Savannah, GA

Presidents List Deans' List

Presidents List

Deans' List

LICENSES

Registered Nurse (SC) # 106976 Expiration Date: 03/2020

Advanced Cardiac Life Support (ACLS)

Basic Life Support, Progressive (BLS)

Coronary Care Nurse (PCCN)