
STEPHANIE SCHREINER

ss3905@georgetown.edu

414-477-9259

S72W13775 Woods Rd. Muskego, WI 53150

Profile

Recent graduate of Georgetown University's MSN-FNP program and certified through AANP. Registered Nurse of 8 years with experience in subacute, inpatient, and critical care settings. Aiming to utilize years of practice as well as provider knowledge to offer competent and compassionate care. Routinely regarded as thorough, reliable, and conscientious.

Professional Experience

Staff RN

CVICU- Froedtert Hospital; Milwaukee, WI — 2017-Present

- Provide nursing care to a variety of critically ill patients and conduct advanced physical assessments
- Skilled at managing invasive hemodynamic monitoring as well as mechanical circulatory devices including ECMO, Impella, Intra-aortic balloon pump, Total Artificial Heart, etc.
- Experienced with running continuous renal replacement therapy and many vasoactive and inotropic medications according to physician orders
- Astutely trained to recognize even minute changes in patient condition and anticipate appropriate interventions

Staff RN

Cardiac Step-down Unit- Froedtert Hospital; Milwaukee, WI — 2013-2017

- Provided and coordinated advanced care for 3-5 patients daily with a wide variety of cardiac, cardiothoracic, and general medical concerns
- Recovered patients after cardiac catheterizations, pacemaker implants, thoracotomies, esophagectomies and various other surgeries and procedures
- Assisted in ADL performance and physical rehabilitation of patients

Education

Georgetown University — MSN-FNP, 2019

- 650+ clinical hours completed in rural and urban settings in WI, including built-in pediatric and women's health rotations

Marian University — BSN, 2012

Marian University — Spanish Major, 2012

Certifications

FNP - F02190547

ACLS

BLS

Additional Skills

Spanish Language - Advanced

Telemetry

Critical Thinking

Effective Communication

Flexibility

Dependability

References

Available upon request