

Laurie Jo Mulvey

625 Cleavland Drive, Bolingbrook, Illinois 60440

630-946-6552

Mulveyclan@comcast.net

OBJECTIVE: To attain a position as a Critical Care Nurse utilizing my education and clinical experience.

EDUCATION: Associate in Applied Science in Nursing May, 1993

William Rainey Harper College, Palatine, Illinois

Bachelor of Science in Nursing May, 1996

Lewis University, Romeoville, Illinois

Master of Science in Nursing-Clinical Educator May 2012

Lewis University, Romeoville, Illinois

HONORS: Sigma Theta Tau 1996, 2011

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

August 2015: Maclean Center for Medical Ethics Fellow

May 2015: Part time Clinical Instructor Chamberlain College of Nursing.

October 2005-present. CCU Staff RN, University of Chicago Medicine, Illinois.

Provide care to a multitude of cardiac patients with specialization in pulmonary hypertension, heart failure, heart transplants, LVAD's and myocardial infarctions. Participates on the local practice council, serves as a charge nurse and preceptor to new employees.

April 2003- eICU RN, Advocate Health Care, Oak Brook, Illinois.

October 2005. The electronic ICU has the capability to monitor the critical care patients in the various intensive care units twenty four hours a day with the Advocate system. This includes live vital signs, current lab and Xray reports as well as the ability to video in to each patient room to perform a visual assessment if emergency intervention is needed.

April 2000-April 2003. Staff RN Good Samaritan Hospital, Downers Grove, Illinois. Provide care for the critically ill patient in a 24 bed Level 1 Trauma Center. Participated in unit based committees as well as preceptor to new RN, s.

1999-2000. Staff RN, Provena Medical Center, Joliet Illinois. Provide care for the critically ill patient in various critical care units. Employed as a registry RN.

1998-1999. Program Coordinator, Anticoagulation Clinic, Loyola University, Maywood Illinois. Responsibilities included monitoring safety and efficacy of warfarin therapy, patient assessment, patient education and handling of critical lab values. Responsible for the overall function of the clinic as well manager of five RN, s.

1997-1998. Staff RN, Edward Hospital, Naperville, Illinois. Provide care for the surgical heart patient as well as medical intensive care patients. Participated on several unit based committees as well as a preceptor to new RN, s.

1993-1997. Staff RN, Alexian Brothers Medical Center, Elk Grove Village, Illinois. Provide care for the medical and coronary care patients. Participated in several committees as well as charge RN.

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS: American Association of Critical Care Nurses, Sigma Theta