

Lauren Seng

Registered Nurse - Emergency Department - Deaconess Hospital

Evansville, IN 47715

lauren.seng90@gmail.com

(812) 309-8572

Work Experience

Registered Nurse - Emergency Department

Deaconess Hospital

May 2015 to Present

Level 2 Trauma Center

Primary Stroke Center

Manage care of patients ranging from newborn to deceased; assessment and treatment of critically ill including traumas, cardiac arrests, and stroke; Provide trauma informed care to all patients, specifically victims of domestic violence and sexual assault; Provide thorough and detailed care with evidence collection for sexual assault victims of all ages; collaborate with Sexual Assault Response Team including law enforcement, Child and Adult Protective Services, and advocacy groups; Work in direct collaboration with multidisciplinary team including physicians, resident physicians, midlevels, radiology, respiratory therapy, social work, case management, physical and occupational therapies; Unit charge nurse experience

Registered Nurse - Telemetry Stepdown

COPD

May 2013 to May 2015

Monitor patients with dysrhythmias; Perform and interpret EKG; Titrate cardiac drips per hospital protocol; Care for cardiac-specific patient population with multitude of diagnoses including CHF, MI, dysrhythmias, COPD, and diabetes

Student Nurse Intern

Telemetry Stepdown

January 2013 to April 2013

Worked directly under supervision of registered nurse preceptor to better develop clinical assessment/judgment of cardiac patients; gained knowledge of cardiac drip medications within facility protocols; developed understanding of EKG in relation to patient history and diagnosis

Education

Bachelor of Science in Nursing

University of Southern Indiana

May 2013

Nursing Licenses

RN

Skills

- Emergency Room
- Trauma
- ER