

Sarah Heinig

Combined Locks, WI 54113
smhconsultrn@gmail.com
+1 907 351 7435

Work Experience

Registered Nurse/Transport Nurse

Children's Hospital of Wisconsin - Neenah, WI
July 2020 to Present

Providing care in level III NICU along with ground transport. Transitioned from per diem to full time employee in October 2021. Responsibilities include high risk delivery attendance, ground transportation to outlying facilities for higher level of care for distressed neonates, offer expertise to bedside staff, educate families on care of their baby and promote developmental care. Active NRP, PALS and STABLE certification.

Registered Nurse

UW Health - Madison, WI
September 2019 to Present

Team member on the UW MedFlight pediatric/neonatal critical care transport unit. Speciality trained to provide care with minimal support in outlying facilities. Provide care in two modes of transport via ambulance and helicopter. Entrusted to be make critical decisions and interventions in an autonomous environment with a respiratory therapist partner. Care population ranges from premature infants to 18 years old. Skills include IV skills, ultrasound placed IV's, critical thinking, scene safety and strong communication. Expansion RN staff for level IV NICU.

Registered Nurse/Charge Nurse

Providence Medical Center - Anchorage, AK
April 2016 to August 2019

Caring for the most critical neonates in the only level III NICU in the state of Alaska. An active Wee care member this is specially trained to care for micro-preemies. Newest role is charge nurse on night shift. Responsibilities include delivery attendance, support to bedside nurses, staffing the unit, acuity assessments, advocate between nurse and providers and conflict resolution within the unit.

Registered Nurse

The Alaska Native Medical Center - Anchorage, AK
July 2012 to April 2016

Providing all aspects of care to ages 0-18 of native culture. Crossed trained in level II NICU, pediatric intensive care and general inpatient pediatrics. Strive to meet cultural needs of patient and families. Act as charge nurse when needed. Current instructor for PALS classes. Developed and presented to new hire RN's about clinical documentation. Serve as a member on nursing research and evidence based practice council, nursing practice council and preceptor to newly hired RN's. Created policy and procedure with implementation of peritoneal dialysis in the PICU. Super user for Alaris pumps, Zoll monitor and Cerner EHR.

Registered Nurse

CorVel Corporation - Anchorage, AK

January 2015 to March 2015

Medical case management to injured workers through worker compensation claims.

Provide safe and timely return to work status through proactive approach on claims. Assist worker with care coordination and education related to injury. Provide detailed reports and review of medical records to adjuster and employer on a timely schedule. Establish professional relationships with providers, injured worker, adjuster and employer. Skilled in time management, critical thinking, and technology functions. Knowledge of recordable and non-recordable injuries per OSHA guidelines.

Registered Nurse

The Sheboygan Surgery Center - Sheboygan, WI

June 2008 to June 2012

Provided care to surgical patients in all age populations in the outpatient setting. Provided pre and post-operative care with importance focused on quality care, proper education, and patient comfort.

Cross-trained in operating room, pain clinic and endoscopy. Overnight care of facial plastic surgery patients. Involvement in monthly chart audits, quarterly reporting, performance improvement and risk management. Educational Coordinator for all staff and developed new educational program tailored to a surgery center.

Developed a pediatric specific program for pediatric patients. Assisted in the development of policy and procedures related to accreditation standards and

Medicare guidelines. Involved with the fine details of opening the center in

Registered Nurse

Children's Hospital of Wisconsin - Milwaukee, WI

December 2006 to June 2008

Provided care for the medical/surgical patient population of 0-2 years of age.

Used nursing judgment and critical thinking skills to individualize care to each patient. Offered support to the family dynamics of the patient. Preceptor to newly hired RN's. Included floating to level III NICU as needed.

Registered Nurse

Aurora Health Care - Sheboygan, WI

December 2004 to June 2012

Managed all aspects of care for antepartum and postpartum women along with newborn care. Assisted during epidurals, cesarean sections, circumcisions, and delivery.

Provided education and teaching to expecting parents through community education.

Education

Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree

UW Oshkosh - Oshkosh, WI

2009 to 2012

Associate Degree in Nursing

Lakeshore Technical College - Cleveland, WI

August 2002 to December 2005

Skills

- Critical Care Experience
- Nursing
- Medication Administration
- Infant Care
- EMR Systems
- Hospital Experience
- Epic

Certifications and Licenses

PALS Certification

RN License

STABLE

NRP Certification

BLS Certification