MAY 2015 –NOVEMBER 2018

MEDICAL STAFF ASSOCIATE, CSL PLASMA

As a Medical Staff Associate (MSA) I performed certain nursing skills in a plasma donation facility. Some of the task that I performed was assessments, physicals, documentation and resolving any adverse events of the clients. I was also required to evaluate any client that exhibits any signs that they are not suitable to precede with the plasmapheresis procedure. As an MSA it was my responsibility to ensure compliance in all the tasks performed by following the SOPs that are set by the company.

FEBRUARY 2013 – SEPTEMBER 2014

SALES REPRESENTATIVE/CUSTOMER SERVICE, CONVERGYS

As a customer service representative, I assisted my customers with their existing AT&T accounts. I spent most of my time communicating with the customers and building rapport. As a customer service representative, I also made sure that all the customer's questions were answered, and all the issues were solved to avoid escalation. I was also the top performer for our Quality Assurance team. As part of the company I was also given the opportunity to be a floor support and spent most of my employment period as a floor support. It was my duty to train the new agents as well as making sure they were successful at meeting all the call handling requirements by coaching the agents. As a floor support I was responsible in training the agents on any new material the company received.

APRIL 2011-FEBRUARY 2013

SALES ASSOCIATE / CASHIER, GAP OUTLET

Working as a sales associate at Gap required me to be moving around and constantly active. I also help our customers in finding items that fits their fashion senses and their styles based on what they tell me they do daily and sometimes hobbies. I provided fast and friendly customer service to ensure customer satisfaction. This position also required me to use a cash register to take different forms of payments from the customers.
