

Marlene Cid Luna

Contact

(970) 589-5194

ADDRESS

1016 Malibu Way
Carlsbad, NM 88220
marleneluna07@gmail.com

PROFILE

Objective: Focused, highly motivated individual interested in obtaining a career oriented position within the medical field industry. I am a quick study and have a genuine interest in establishing a long-term commitment of loyal and trustworthy performance to your organization. I love to work with people and make a difference in patients' lives.

Areas of expertise and Clinical Skills

- Experience with Omnicell medication distribution machine and computer charting –MedHost and Evident
- Management of care under contact, droplet, and airborne precautions.
- Highly proficient clinical skills: IV starts, pushes, drips, 12-lead EKGs, blood transfusion monitoring, central line care, intubations, and codes.
- Bi-Lingual: Speak, read, and write Spanish and English fluently
- Strong work ethic, punctual and honest employee
- Personable with excellent communication skills
- Comfortable and interactive with patients.

EDUCATION

2010 to 2014	High School Diploma Rifle, High School, Rifle, Colorado
2018	Associate in Nursing New Mexico State University-Carlsbad

Licenses and Certifications

2018-Current	Registered Nurse, State of New Mexico
2018-Current	BLS Certification American Heart Association
2018-Current	PALS Certification ACLS Certification

WORK EXPERINCE

Grand River Hospital

October 2013 to May 2014

Rifle, Colorado

Nutrition Specialist

Responsibilities:

- Help out the main Chef with kitchen duties such as; cleaning the kitchen, preparing the food preparation for the next day and making the menu for the day.
- Serving patients and taking their order.
- Work catering during the events the hospital hosted.
- Prepare the meals, desserts, or salads for the event. Set-up and clean-up the rooms where the event was held.
- Serve the guests by taking their food, picking up their plates, and refilling their drinks.

Carlsbad Medical Center,

November 2014 to May 2015

Carlsbad, New Mexico

Dietary Aide

Responsibilities:

- Prepare patient food tray according to diet and being aware of any changes
- Delivering food tray to correct room and patient while being considerate of patient safety and needs
- Picking up trays and washing dishes

Artesia Healthcare Professionals

May 2015 to June 2018

Carlsbad, New Mexico

Medical Assistant

Responsibilities:

- Calling patients into room and getting them ready for provider which involves but not limited to; getting their vitals, interviewing the patient including getting their medical history and chief complaint, and stripping down post-op dressings.
- Demonstrating the patient how to put a brace on.
- Applying a cast or splint for fractures.
- Taking sutures/staples out for post-op patients.

- Answering patient messages and being the middle man between the provider and patient. Calling in prescriptions to pharmacies.
- Organizing my area and making sure we have enough paperwork for the day.

Artesia General Hospital

Artesia, New Mexico

June 23rd 2018-January 1st 2021

Medical-Surgical Nurse

Responsibilities:

- Utilizing the nursing process of assessment, planning, intervention, implementation, and evaluation to effectively deliver care to patients and their families.
- Teach patients/family appropriate health information in a timely manner.
- Communicate concerns and questionable findings with the physician or surgeon in a timely, respectable manner.
- Performing direct patient care, utilizing established procedures, policies, and standards.

Carlsbad Medical Center

Carlsbad, New Mexico

April 2020-February 2021

Emergency Room Nurse

Responsibilities:

- Collaborate with doctors and emergency staff in the assessment and implementation of patient treatment and care.
- Monitor current assigned patients, identify issues and provide alternatives to deploy solutions.
- Document patient progress on electronic medical records while maintaining high levels of readability and accuracy.
- Provide documentation for admissions, transfers, and discharges.
- Perform specialized, life-saving treatments such as CPR and ACLS
- Perform specific patient tasks as order by Physicians.
- Provide compassion to patient and family members while ensuring optimal levels of comfort, treatment, and privacy.