

MARCUS EVANS

9131 W Congress Milwaukee, WI 53224 | 414-614-3937 | marcusevans28@icloud.com

OBJECTIVE

I am interested in a position with a growing company. I am well organized, dependable and professionally motivated. I have experience in many areas of the work industry. I adapt to changes very well and I am willing and eager to learn and adjust to new skills.

SKILLS & ABILITIES

Patient, Leader, Good Communication, Team Player and Positive Attitude.

EXPERIENCE

- November 2019-
Current Medical Assistant, Concentra
- Perform Dot and Non-Dot Drug Screening/ Dot Physical, Take Vital signs and performing all required test, provide assistance during examination and treatment and Cross trained to perform Front office duties.
- June 2019-Oct.
2019 Phlebotomist, Interstate
- Perform vein check to determine donor suitability, verifies donor identification, prepares venipuncture, monitors the donor throughout the collection process and upon completion of the donation, removes the apheresis needle and wrap the donor arm.
- November
2017-Sept.
2018 Medical Assistant, ArcPoint Labs of Milwaukee North
- Rooming patients, Greet patients, Scheduling appointments, Office work, Drug/Alcohol testing, Background checks/Fingerprints, DNA testing, 24/7 on call service, Dot testing, phlebotomists/Drawing blood Self or physician ordered and Consortium services

EDUCATION

August 2010-
2012

Associated Degree, West Allis, Sanford Brown

COMMUNICATION

Communicate very well with Co-workers and higher management. I understand the importance of good communication and how it takes you to the next step in your career.

LEADERSHIP

Very much a natural leader. I allow myself to take the initiative to go above and beyond at my job whether it's by myself or with other co-workers.

Professional Accomplishment

- CPR and First Aid Certified
- Vital Signs, Immunizations, injection, and urinalysis
- Greeted and roomed patients
- Medical Assistant Externship completed
- CBRF Certified