

Jihyun Yi

Caring and competent registered nurse with over 4 years of experience in ICU seeking a position as a travel nurse to provide excellent patient care by utilizing critical thinking, clear communication to the interdisciplinary team, and safe patient-centered care.

9439 East Fairway Circle
Mesa, AZ 85207
(480) 262-7549
jihyunyi22@gmail.com

EXPERIENCE

Tempe St. Luke's Hospital, Tempe, AZ — ICU RN

December 2020 - January 2021

- First travel assignment
- Working in Covid ICU as a nurse taking care of very critical patients on ventilators and titrating drips.
- Deliver exceptional care to critical ill patients in ICU by providing thorough assessments and treatments.
- Safely administer medications, intravenous fluids, and follow treatment protocols per orders.
- Monitor telemetry, manage life support equipment, observe patients and report any changes in conditions to providers, and respond to emergent, life-saving situations.
- Assist physicians with procedures at bedside.
- Educate patients and families regarding current conditions, plan of care, and provide support.
- Groom and bathe patients and provide assistance with personal care.

Banner Baywood Medical Center, Mesa, AZ — ICU RN

October 2016 - December 2020

- Proficient at taking care of Covid-19 patients in ICU (worked in Covid-19 ICU since February 2020)

EDUCATION

Arizona State University, Phoenix — Bachelor of Science in Nursing

May 2016

Arizona State University, Tempe — Bachelor of Science in Biological Sciences

December 2011

SKILLS

Proficient in Cerner and Meditech

CAPD and CCPD

SLED

Rotoprone

AWARDS

Received a daisy nomination for Daisy Award in June 2018 and January 2019 at Banner Baywood Medical Center.

LANGUAGES

Expert proficiency in reading, speaking, and writing in Korean

CERTIFICATIONS

BLS and ACLS

NIH

