

Douglas Dillon Eastwood, RN-BSN, Paramedic, U.S. Navy Veteran

5941 Ever View Court ♦ Las Vegas, NV. 89148 ♦ Cell: (928) 278-9932 ♦ E-mail: ddeastwoodm@gmail.com

Dedicated to providing each patient with the highest level of compassionate care and professionalism

EDUCATION & TRAINING:

Herzing University Online (09/2020-Present) – Milwaukee, WIS.

Master of Science, Family Nurse Practitioner

University of Mary-Hardin Baylor (01/2014-12/2016) – Belton, TX.

Bachelor of Science in Nursing (Sigma Theta Tau & Alpha Chi Honor Society, GPA: 3.9)

Baylor University (08/2013-12/2013) – Waco, TX.

Pre-requisite nursing curriculum

Texas State University (09/2002-05/2006) – San Marcos, TX.

90+ hour curriculum in Biochemistry; Spanish coursework (Mitte Honors Program, GPA above 3.8)

Low Country EMS (08/1993-05/1994) – Charleston, SC.

Paramedic Training Program

Naval School of Health Sciences (05/1995-09/1995) – San Diego, CA.

Hospital Corpsman, Valedictorian

LICENSES & CERTIFICATIONS:

Registered Nurse-NV.	Exp. 05/2023
Registered Nurse-TX.	Exp. 05/2023
Paramedic	Exp. 08/2023
BLS (CPR/AED)	Exp. 12/2022
ACLS	Exp. 12/2022
PICC Insertion Cert.	No expiration

EXPERIENCE:

Registered Nurse, ICU

Ansible Solutions/VA Southern Nevada Healthcare System	02/2021-Present
Centennial Hills Hospital Medical Center, Las Vegas, NV.	06/2018-10/2018
Valley View Medical Center, Fort Mohave, AZ.	04/2017-06/2018

- Consulting and coordinating with health care team to assess, plan, implement, and evaluate patient care plans in a dynamic critical care environment
- Employing critical thinking skills, specific judgment, and organization skills while prioritizing tasks and adjusting priorities when necessary
- Recognizing and reporting errors and unusual occurrences and analyzing contributing factors, initiating corrective action when appropriate
- Performing procedures of intravenous therapy, including blood draws from central lines, set-up and monitoring of chest tubes and drainage systems, IV insertions, and monitoring of central lines
- Administering and infusing multiple medications, including, but not limited to, cardiac drips, beta blockers, anti-arrhythmic, vasopressor, and vasodilating drips and medications
- Sensitively caring for a culturally diverse population of adults from eighteen to greater than ninety years of age with various conditions, including pneumonia, AMI, CVA, post-surgical individuals, and orthopedic patients with complications

Director of Nursing & Patient Development Clinical Researcher

Giving Home Health Care, Las Vegas, NV.

10/2018-Present

- Perform clinical research to ensure patients' consequential illnesses receive adequate medical coverage by Department of Labor
- Collaborate with physicians of various disciplines to confirm patients' impairment ratings are equitable to their level of compensation by the Department of Labor
- Supervise 600+ employees, including nurses, CNAs, PCAs, case managers, and administrative staff in providing care for former test site workers/Department of Energy employees
- Ensure compliance with state and federal entities
- Conduct training for field staff
- Resolve grievances, complaints, and various issues that arise in providing quality care
- Facilitate communication with patients, family members, and the entire interdisciplinary team
- Guide field staff in the performance of duties and compliance with the medical plan of care
- Engage with various representatives for the purpose of providing supplementary services
- Discern qualified nursing and CNA candidates for employment and conduct disciplinary action as needed

Veterans Health Administration (VHA)

Temple, TX.

VALOR Student Nurse Technician, ICU

05/2016-12/2016

- Chosen as a VALOR student nurse to work in ICU (only 10 VALOR students selected from amongst Central Texas nursing school applicants, and only 2 selected for ICU)
- Regulated ventilators, inserted NG tubes, performed full assessments, dispensed various IV medications and drips, installed central lines, extracted central line and PICC line blood draws, and documented patient care
- Analyzed and presented evidence-based research for a Capstone project regarding DKA protocols, which the VHA is in the process of implementing

U.S. Navy (Desert Storm Veteran)

Alameda, CA.

U.S. Navy Medic

07/1990 – 07/1994

- Served the U.S. Navy EMS as a Hospital Corpsman and field supervisor
- Managed medic group, resolved conflicts, provided QA for reports, and prioritized and dispatched emergency units
- Supervised clinic for dependents and military personnel

Awards & Honors:

- Sigma Theta Tau International Honor Society of Nursing
- Alpha Chi National Honor Society
- VALOR nursing student at Veterans Health Administration (VHA)
- Hometown Hero Award from KVUE-24 News
- Valedictorian, Naval School of Health Sciences
- Eagle Scout (Boy Scouts of America)
- Golden Key International Honors Society member (Top 10%)
- Honorably discharged U.S. Navy veteran with world travel experience in military and as a civilian

Volunteer:

- Served tirelessly in Haiti Relief 2010 effort to provide medical care and food to displaced Haitians
- Served in Bangladesh with local pastors and the general populace to outline relief effort