Experience

Travel Registered Nurse

WellSpan Health

Feb 2021 - Present (3 months +)

596 bed level 1 trauma center and comprehensive stroke center in York, PA.

Care for 1-3 patients across several of the facility's 12 bed ICUs (Neuroscience ICU, cardiac ICU, COVID ICU, surgical ICU, and cardiovascular surgical ICU).

Care includes titration of vasoactive infusions based on hemodynamic values derived from invasive lines, such as pulmonary artery catheters. Perform serial NIH stroke assessments. Competent in interpreting EKG tracing

Collaborate with interdisciplinary specialty consultations to both advocate and guide patient's plan of care.

Precept unit's new staff during their orientation process.

Registered Nurse II

Johns Hopkins Hospital

Aug 2018 - Feb 2021 (2 years 7 months)

Provided skilled ICU care to two patients simultaneously on the 24 bed neurosciences critical care unit (NCCU) in Baltimore, MD. Patient population was a mix of post operative surgical, medical, and trauma.

Acted independently to implement appropriate interventions and communicate pertinent findings from my serial neurological examinations to the interdisciplinary team.

Managed multiple vasoactive drips, CVVHD, invasive lines, multi modality monitoring, and care of intubated patients. Assisted in bedside procedures, e.g intubation, EVD placement, running codes, and tracheotomy placement.

Member of my unit's education committee (helps educate both fellow RNs and members of the interdisciplinary team at organized skills day events); helped to adjust unit policy, implement new standard in hand-off, as well as in required documentation.

Was a super user for the unit on patient mobility, crisis prevention management (CPM), and was a unit hero on delirium prevention and volume based feeding. Helped organize and perform lectures on CPM to entire neuroscience department. Chosen to attend/represent Johns Hopkins at the 52nd Annual AANN educational conference.

Primary preceptor for both new staff orientation and nursing student's senior clinical externships.
