Patricia Marshall, RN

Summary

Registered nurse with 7 + years at United Indian Health Services, and 15 + years in health care setting overall. Confident with sterile procedure set up, patient interaction, vaccine schedules, and primary care practices.

Experience

September 2015 - Present	United Indian Health Services	Arcata, CA
 Clinical Nurse Supervisor Triage patients in person and over telephone Complete nursing standing orders in compliance with protocol Vaccine Coordinator Transitioned from Clinical Floor Nurse to Clinical Nurse Supervisor in Summer 2020
February 2014 – September 2015 Medical Assistant	United Indian Health Services	Arcata, CA
 Maintain autoclave room and ensure sterility of procedural instruments Assist in the training of new Medical Assistants, as needed Review each provider visit prior to patients arrival to ensure all patient needs are met
September 2012 – August 2013 Medical Assistant	United Indian Health Services	Arcata, CA
 Assist ant Assist in the set up and performance of sterile procedures Perform routine in office diagnostic tests as needed Obtain vital signs and prepare patient for provider visit
Prior to 2012	K'ima:w Medical Center	Ноора, СА
 Clerical Assistant Assisted each department as needed, including Human Resources, Quality Improvement, and Nursing Assisted with the conversation of Policies and Procedures Manual to digital format Transcribing minutes as needed
Education

2013-2015

College of the Redwoods

Eureka, CA

ASN

Patricia Shackelford

Skills

NextGen proficiency \cdot Self-motivated \cdot Sterile procedure set up \cdot Team player \cdot Flexible \cdot Adaptive \cdot Cultural knowledge \cdot Problem solving \cdot Open minded \cdot Critical observer \cdot Autoclave maintenance \cdot Vaccine background \cdot Logical

References

References are available on request.