

Gidder David Zelaya Martinez RN, BSN

1715 Miller Drive · DeLand, Florida 32720 · (317) 775-9086 · E-mail: gidder.zelaya@gmail.com

To expand my knowledge and gain practical experience in the healthcare field as a registered nurse.

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

- Quickly focus and prioritize in an ever-changing environment of complex clinical situations in the PACU and ICU setting
- Bilingual, fluent in written and spoken Spanish and English
- Effectively communicating with the multidisciplinary team to assess, plan, implement, and evaluate patient care plans
- Knowledge of basic and intermediate use of information technology and computer programs for document processing and use
- Active BLS, ACLS, and PALS credentials
- 4.5-year recent clinical experience as an RN providing direct care to acutely and critically ill adult patients

EDUCATION

Adventist University of Health Sciences, Orlando, FL 08/2012 – 08/2016
Bachelor of Science in Nursing

Indiana Seventh Day Adventist Academy, Cicero, IN 09/2010 – 05/2012
High School Diploma

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

AdventHealth Orlando South Orlando, FL 04/2017 – Current Orthopedic and Thoracic Pre and Post Anesthesia Care Unit -- Registered Nurse

- Provide direct and individualized nursing care to pre and post operative patients who are recovering from surgical and/or diagnostic procedures
- Educate and support patients and their families about the perioperative process and prepare patients for surgery
- Monitor, record, and report signs and symptoms or changes in patient's conditions in the post anesthesia unit
- Consult and coordinate with the interdisciplinary team members to assess, plan, implement, and evaluate patient care plans
- Administer local, inhalation, intravenous, or other medications as directed by the medical team
- Provide support, education, and comfort to patients and their families during their perioperative experience
- Responsible for managing the care of adult and/or pediatric patients after procedural anesthesia requiring assessment, therapy and interventions.

AdventHealth Orlando/South Orlando, FL 04/2017 – 04/2020
Cardiac Intensive Care Unit/Medical Intensive Care Unit -- Registered Nurse

- Provide direct and individualized nursing care to cardiac and medical patients
- Manage the care of adult cardiac and medical patients experiencing life-threatening problems that require complex assessment, high intensity therapies, and intervention
- Monitor, record, and report signs and symptoms or changes in patient's conditions in the critical care setting
- Provide professional treatment and care for adult patients that includes MI, heart failure, cardiac dysrhythmias, structural heart diseases, hypothermia post-cardiac arrest, and pre/post-op vascular procedures
- Provide respiratory and ventilator management for patients

Certifications & Licensure

- NCLEX-RN Licensure Re-Certification: July 2022
- ACLS Certification - American Heart Association Re-Certification: August 2022
- BLS Certification – American Heart Association Re-Certification: July 2022
- PALS Certification - American Heart Association Re-Certification: April 2022

Summary of Skills, Knowledge, & Experience

Ventricular Assistive Device Competency	Neuromuscular Blockade Administration and Titration
Therapeutic Hypothermia Certified	Hemodynamic Monitoring
Electrocardiogram Interpretation Competency	Pulmonary Hypertension Certified
Intra-Aortic Balloon Pump Device Certified	Impella Device Management Certified
Cardiovascular Medication and Sedation Drip Titration	Critical Care Nurse Preceptor
Hemodynamic Device Insertion Assist, Monitoring and Management	Nerve Block Certification
Continuous Intravenous Insulin Administration and Management	COVID-19 ICU Patient Care and Management