

DINA MAZONI

65 E Monroe St., Chicago, IL 60603, 708-717-7674, dinamazoni@gmail.com

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Driven Registered Nurse and Clinical Nurse Educator at the Loretto Hospital. Tireless commitment to high quality patient centered care and hospital nursing education. Experienced in care and treatment involved in individuals with a variety of physical, emotional, and/ or psychiatric disabilities. Flexible and resourceful with the ability to smoothly adapt to changing education trends and nursing needs.

SKILLS

- Fluent in Arabic
- PICC Certified
- Proficient in computer skills
- Intravenous Therapy
- Facility Policies And Procedures
- Preventative Health

EXPERIENCE

Clinical Nurse Educator August 2020 - Current

The Loretto Hospital | Chicago, IL

- Modernized practicing nurses by executing and developing education programs that will keep the nursing personnel in tune with current developments in the profession.
- Designed training workshops and conferences to further the goals of health education and health promotion in nursing.
- Quality of documentation of daily catheter and central line bundles after educational in-services has improved by 75% in all nursing staff.
- Follow up rate in return demonstration of education is at a 100%.
- Built the operational plans, policies and systems necessary to achieve the outlined health education service targets.
- Assessing existing programs and determined weaknesses by collaborating with area agencies and organizations.
- Trained new and existing employees in the best strategies and required procedures for disseminating health-related information.
- Improved quality of medication scanning to 93% and trending upward

Registered Nurse April 2020 - Current

Maximum Healthcare Solutions | Chicago, IL

- Provided direct quality care to patients including daily assessments, charting, medication administration, and supervision of care of 5 to 7 patients per day.
- Improved team dynamics by communicating with other healthcare providers in the management of patient care.
- Trained and mentored student nurses, interns, and new graduates in proper procedures and care standards.
- Maximized unit efficiency, keeping supplies and records well-organized for expected needs.
- Managed smooth patient flows into and out of telemetry unit, handling admissions and discharge paperwork.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of science in nursing
Univerity of St. Francis, Joliet, IL

December 2019