

Lauren M. Mergen, BSN, RN

mergen.lauren@gmail.com
Nashville, TN
(320) 221-4400

SUMMARY

Registered Nurse with a passion to learn, communicate effectively + provide patient and family-centered care; a detail-oriented clinician focused on compassionate, evidence-based care in diverse patient populations.

EXPERIENCE

Emory Healthcare — Registered Nurse Clinician

Atlanta, Georgia

MARCH 2019 - JUNE 2021

- Collaborate with patients, families and interdisciplinary team to construct + implement individualized patient care plans
- Perform routine duties, medication administration + ongoing management of patients guided by evidence-based guidelines and standardized procedures + protocols
- Educate patients + families on disease management, medications, community resources + treatment plan

Vanderbilt University Medical Center — Program Coordinator

Nashville, Tennessee

AUGUST 2013 - AUGUST 2016

- Assisted Vanderbilt researchers with recruitment + retention including writing grant applications, study copy, outreach materials + consent forms
- Conducted focus groups within diverse populations to gain feedback for Vanderbilt research studies + the Precision Medicine Initiative
- Developed logistical plan, negotiated agreements with external vendors + executed logistics for federal grant initiatives + biannual meetings with NIH
- Participated in street team to promote + manage research education events

EDUCATION

Belmont University — Bachelor of Science in Nursing

Nashville, TN

AUGUST 2018 - DECEMBER 2019

Drake University — Bachelor of Arts in Public Relations

Des Moines, IA

AUGUST 2010 - MAY 2013

OTHER

RN license #235032, Tennessee Board of Nursing
Basic Life Support, American Heart Association