

willette morrison

Marysville, WA

willemorrison485_ohh@indeedemail.com

+1 360 722 6650

Willing to relocate: Anywhere

Work Experience

Licensed Practical Nurse

State Of Washington - Olympia, WA

February 2018 to May 2021

Duties, Accomplishments and Related Skills:

Intake screening which includes gathering a basic healthcare history with a focus on physical, dental, mental health, and substance abuse issues. Obtains vital signs which include weight, height, blood pressure, temperature, heart and breathing rate. Rooms patients for provider care appointments and assists with procedures as requested. transcribing, preparing, administering, and documentation of medications. This includes oral, inhalation, topical, and parenteral routes of administration. Administers immunizations and vaccines. Assists in medical emergencies, such as cardiac pain, profuse bleeding, physical assaults, drug overdoses, hypoglycemia episodes, and hanging. Collects specimen samples for testing, such as blood, urine, sputum, and wound drainage. Operates and maintains medical equipment, such as EKG, bladder scans, enteral feeding and intravenous pumps, wound care vacuum systems, and glucose monitoring devices. Visual acuity testing using the Snellen chart. Irrigates ears, as ordered, wound dressing changes. As ordered, removes sutures and staples in wound care. Performs circulation checks and requires limb rotation on patients restrained in restraint chairs and beds. As warranted, performs CIWA and COWS scale.

Prepares forms for diagnostic testing, such as X-Ray, lab, and physical therapy.

Schedules in house and outside provider care appointments. Inventories, orders, and stocks medication and healthcare supplies. Replaces, irrigates, and maintains urinary devices. This includes Foley, straight, and supra pubic catheters. All duties performed following facility and state nursing guidelines.

Health Pro Licensed Practical Nurse

883A South Market - Chehalis, WA

May 2014 to January 2018

Duties, Accomplishments and Related Skills:

Prepared, administered, and documentation of medications/treatments. This includes oral, topical, inhalation, parental, as well as vaccines and immunizations. Rooms patients for provider care appointments, and assists with procedures as requested.

Gathering a basic health care history with focus on physical, dental, mental health, and substance abuse history. Obtains specimen samples for diagnostic testing. This would include blood, urine, stool, and sputum. Assists with all medical emergencies cardiac, hypoglycemic, drug overdoses, seizures, physical assaults, and events of self harm.

Utilizes basic healthcare equipment IV pumps, mechanical lis, feeding pumps, and wound vacuum systems. Replaces, irrigates, and maintains urinary devices.

Communicates with healthcare providers, concerning a change in condition of patient.

Prepares forms for diagnostic testing, such as X-Ray, lab, and therapy appointments. Schedules provider care appointments, and follow up care as requested. Assignments have included correctional care facilities and community based outpatients clinics.

Licensed Practical Nurse

NuWest HealthCare Staffing - Bellevue, WA

December 2015 to January 2017

Duties, Accomplishments and Related Skills:

Staffing service contract with the Puget Sound Health system. Assignments included primary care, specialty clinics, and the rehabilitation unit.

Dept Of Veterans Affairs - Denver, CO

May 2015 to August 2015

Hours per week: 0

Licensed Practical Nurse (This is a federal job)

Duties, Accomplishments and Related Skills:

Documents information obtained using the computerized patient record system

(CPRS) Administers oral and parenteral medication. Documents all medications and treatments using the barcode management system (BCMA) Identifies, initiates, and actively participates in safety and emergency measures Maintains confidentiality of electronic, written, and verbal patient and employee information Diabetic foot care/education, complex dressings, PPD readings, suture and staple removal, and insertion and removal of urinary devices Pre-visit planning, inventories medication/supplies, views patient alerts on CPRS

Licensed Practical Nurse

Cascade Healthcare - Seattle, WA

April 2009 to June 2015

Duties, Accomplishments and Related Skills:

Intake screening which includes gathering a basic healthcare history with a focus on physical, dental, mental health, and substance abuse issues. Transcribing, preparing, administering, and documentation of medications. This includes oral, inhalation, topical, and parenteral routes of administration. Administers immunizations and vaccines. Assists in medical emergencies, such as cardiac pain, profuse bleeding, physical assaults, drug overdoses, hypoglycemia episodes, and hangings. Collecting specimen samples for testing, such as blood, urine, sputum, and wound drainage.

Utilizing medical equipment, such as EKG, bladder scans, enteral feeding and intravenous pumps, audiometer in performing hearing testing, wound care vacuum systems, and glucose monitoring devices.

Performs visual acuity testing using the Snellen chart. Irrigates ears, as ordered. Assists patients with activities of daily living.

Prepares forms for diagnostic testing, such as X-Ray, lab, and physical therapy.

Schedules in house and outside provider care appointments. Inventories, orders, and stocks medication and healthcare supplies. Performs wound dressing changes.

Observes and notes wound drainage amount, color, odor, and consistency. As ordered, removes sutures and staples in wound care. Performs circulation checks and requires limb rotation on patients restrained in restraint chairs and beds. Obtains vital signs which include weight, height, blood pressure, temperature, heart and breathing rate.

As warranted, performs CIWA and COWS scale. Rooms patients for provider care appointments and assists with procedures as requested. Replaces, irrigates, and maintains urinary devices. This includes Foley, straight, and supra pubic catheters. All duties performed following facility and state nursing guidelines.

Licensed Practical Nurse

Calvary Healthcare - Seattle, WA
January 2011 to April 2013

Duties, Accomplishments and Related Skills:

This is a healthcare staffing service agency that provides services to the Puget Sound Veterans Healthcare administration, as well as other local bases healthcare facilities.

Duties included the preparation, administration, and documentation of medication using the BCMA system. Medication routes of administration included oral, topical, inhalation, and parenteral. I also provided direct nursing care, provided assistance with activities of daily living, performed environmental safety checks, milieu maintenance, 1:1 interaction, and management of disruptive patients. Utilizing the mechanical body li, EKG, bladder scans, glucose monitoring devices. Obtaining vital signs that utilized manual and automatic measurements. Focusing on good listening, assessment, and communication skills. Completing clinical reminders on CPRS. These included, but was not limited to performing diabetic foot exams, and providing up to date vaccines and immunizations. Communicating all abnormal findings to the appropriate staff. While at the Puget Sound Healthcare system. Assignments included ambulatory healthcare clinics, medical and spinal cord units, inpatient psychiatric and post-traumatic stress units, and participated in the annual flu clinic of veterans Intake screening which includes gathering a basic healthcare history with a focus on physical, dental, mental health, and substance abuse issues.

Supervisor: Amy Falks (206 937-6402)

Okay to contact this Supervisor: Yes

Licensed Practical Nurse

Maxim Healthcare - Seattle, WA
January 2007 to January 2011

Duties, Accomplishments and Related Skills:

This is a staffing service agency. Assignments have included Washington State Department of Corrections, and the Veterans Healthcare system. Healthcare settings have included, but not limited to acute care inpatient units, ambulatory clinics, community-based health care clinics, and mental health care facilities. Duties include preparing, administering, and documenting medications. This includes vaccines and immunizations, oral, topical, inhalation, and parental forms. Gathering a basic healthcare history and documenting these findings. Obtaining specimen samples for diagnostic testing. Utilizing basic healthcare equipment, such as feeding pumps, wound care vacuum systems, mechanical lis. Irrigating, replacing, and maintaining urinary devices per healthcare provider orders. Performs wound dressing changes.

Notes and documents color, consistency, amount, and odor. Inventories, orders, and stocks medication and healthcare supplies. Assists in medical emergencies. This may include cardiac related, profuse bleeding, drug overdose, hypoglycemia episodes, physical assaults, and attempted serious self-harm. Obtains vital signs, rooms patient for provider care appointments, and assists providers as requested. Schedules in house and out of facility healthcare appointments.

Supervisor: Josh MacIntosh (206 527-1911)

Okay to contact this Supervisor: Yes

Licensed Practical Nurse

Corinthians Healthcare - SeaTac, WA
April 2001 to December 2006

Duties, Accomplishments and Related Skills:

Healthcare staffing service agency providing staffing in a variety of health care settings.

This included acute care mental health, inpatient, substance and detoxification facilities, and long-term care centers. Duties included transcribing, preparing, administering, and documenting medication. Delegation and supervision of unit staff.

Communicating with healthcare providers, concerning a change in condition of a patient. Scheduling outside healthcare appointments and following up with provider orders and recommendations. In doing so, maintaining privacy guidelines.

Supervisor: Office Manager ((206) 575-7895)

Okay to contact this Supervisor: Yes

Education

North Seattle Community College - Seattle, WA

Certifications and Licenses

BLS Certification

LPN

IV Certification