Looking for a dynamic and reliable healthcare associate? Search no further, because I am ready for the job. With over four years' experience as a CNA and seven years as a Certified Home Health Aide, I will step in and make an immediate contribution to a permanent job continued success. You are seeking someone who can provide first-rate patient care and follow all regulations, and that is exactly what I am prepared to do. In my current position as a CNA/HOME HEALTH AIDE I update patient files, assist with procedures, light house keeping, meal prep, Med passing, transport, companionship and educate patients regarding treatment and total wellness. In addition, I am organized, an excellent multi-tasker, and highly accurate.
