

Contact
naomi.scatliffe@gmail.com
718-710-9270
Stratford, CT

Education

Southern Connecticut State University, New Haven, CT

Bachelor of Science, Nursing, 2019

- Accelerated Career Entry Program (ACE)

University of Connecticut, Storrs, CT

Bachelor of Science, Molecular and Cellular Biology, 2016

- Work Study: Biology Lab Analysis Specialist, 2014

Certifications

- Basic Life Support, American Heart Association, Expires: May 2022
- Advanced Cardiovascular Life Support, American Heart Association, Expires: Jan 2022

Clinical Experience

Registered Nurse, Yale New Haven Hospital, CTICU, CT— Aug 2021 - Current

- Provide post-operative care to cardiac surgical patients with aortic & thoracic aneurysms, valve repairs, heart transplants, CABG, various endovascular repairs, ventricular assist devices.
- Management of invasive lines for hemodynamic monitoring, ventilator monitoring/weaning, titration of multiple vasoactive/antiarrhythmics/inotropic/sedative drips.
- Collaborate with multidisciplinary critical care team to facilitate best outcomes for critically ill patients recovering from surgery.

Registered Nurse, Bridgeport Hospital, Progressive Care Unit, CT — Oct 2019 - Aug 2021

- Medical: Management of patients with A-fib RVR, HTN urgency, COPD & CHF exacerbations, COVID/PNA, sepsis, DKA, pancreatitis, bowel obstructions, alcohol/benzo/opioid withdrawal, and electrolyte imbalances.
- Surgical: Experience with post-op cardiac catheterization, carotid endarterectomies, partial thyroidectomy, lung lobectomies, VATS procedures, breast flaps and the management of chest tubes and other surgical drains.
- Closely monitor patients and follow protocol on various titratable anti-hypertensives, antiarrhythmics, insulin, and heparin drips.
- Serve as liaison between patient, their family, and the health care team by advocating for patients' needs.
- Provide holistic patient care & education on disease processes and medications.

Research Experience

Research Assistant, University of Connecticut School of Nursing, CT — Mar 2015 - Sep 2019

- Published a systematic review in the International Journal of Nursing Sciences on the role of oxytocin in early infant and parental relationships.