

Natalie Abellanosa

WORK EXPERIENCE

University of Maryland: Infusion Critical Care Nurse Baltimore, MD
Clinical Registered Nurse II- Charge RN Experience May 2021-Present

- Responsible for safe administration of intravenous and injectable monoclonal antibodies for the treatment of COVID-19
- Oversees daily functioning of the unit, directing admissions, discharges, and general patient flow
- Exercises independent, professional judgment and decision making on a consistent basis.

Mercy Medical Center: Emergency Department Baltimore, MD
Clinical Registered Nurse II July 2021-November 2021

- Provides evidence-based, high quality care, including, but not limited to patient observation, monitoring, and diagnostic testing and treatment, and serves as a resource for other team members
- Merged empathy and strong interpersonal skills by ensuring both physical and emotional needs of patients and families were maintained

LifeBridge Health: Sinai Hospital Baltimore, MD
Emergency Registered Nurse I June 2020 – June 2021

- Level II Trauma Experience with rotation of all services provided in the Emergency Department including psychiatry, pediatrics, chest pain/urgent care, triage, and rapid-evaluation units
- Multitasking and prioritizing responsibilities based on patient condition in a timely manner; maintaining confidence in critical situations
- Preceptor and mentor to nursing students, travel nurses, and EMS students orienting to the unit

EDUCATION

Temple University, College of Public Health Philadelphia, PA
Bachelor of Science in Nursing Graduated: May 2020

LICENSE AND CERTIFICATIONS

- Pediatric Advanced Life Support (PALS) AHA Certified March 2021
- NIH Stroke Scale/Score (NIHSS) Certified September 2020
- Maryland Registered Nurse (RN) License Number: R243950 July 2020
- Advanced Cardiac Life Support (ACLS) AHA Certified August 2020
- Basic Life Support (BLS) AHA Certified August 2020