Registered Nurse on PCU and MedSurg telemetry floor

UofL Hospital - Louisville, KY

June 2020 to May 2021

I worked on a mixed acuity floor at a level 1 trauma hospital. I transitioned into a nurse from a phlebotomists here. We had a variety of patients on our floor. I was exposed to a wide variety of patients and learned so much. The only reason I left is because of staffing. We were a big unit and hardly ever had a unit secretary and enough CNAs. I started to feel unsafe and stressed. I loved working there and all the experience I gained. I became charge nurse shortly after starting on the floor.

PBT (ASCP) Phlebotomist

UofL Hospital - Louisville, KY

Phlebotomist

Gentox Laboratory/ USMedSci - Louisville, KY

June 2017 to July 2018

I really enjoyed working at this office. However, I decided to start working towards my nursing degree and wasn't able to work the schedule I was currently on.

Phlebotomist

St Mary's & Elizabeth - Louisville, KY

August 2016 to June 2017

I worked PRN here. I absolutely loved it.

Phlebotomist

American Red Cross - Louisville, KY

October 2015 to January 2016

I loved working with the people and what I did. The management however was chaotic. A lot of people at this company did not have very good work ethic. I tried to be a team player but it can be frustrating when other employees don't pull their own weight. And they started working me too many hours. I never got off when I was supposed to. Finally I had to quit.
