

NIKOLE ADAMCZYK, MSN-FNP

12025 River Rd | Plano, IL 60545

nikole.adamczyk@yahoo.com | linkedin.com/in/nikole-adamczyk03 | 630-270-9627

CAREER SUMMARY

Family Nurse Practitioner seeking role in healthcare organization to provide high quality patient care. Experience as a registered nurse for three years with variety of experience in different settings such as rehabilitation, outpatient, and acute care. Clinical experiences focused primarily on family practice and women's health. Previous experience as pharmacy technician, providing unique insight and strength in pharmacology and pharmacy processes. Currently, certified in Basic Life Support, Advanced Cardiac Life Support, and Stroke scale.

EDUCATION

Master of Science in Nursing (MSN) Chamberlain University (Addison, IL)	March 2021
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Family Nurse PractitionerSigma Theta Tau
Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) Aurora University (Aurora, IL)	December 2017
Associate of Science (AS) Waubensee Community College (Sugar Grove, IL)	December 2015

LICENSURE & CERTIFICATION

Registered Nurse License (RN) IDFPR (041463123)	05/31/2022
Family Nurse Practitioner Certification (NP-C) AANPCB (F05210402)	05/16/2026
Advanced Practice Registered Nurse License (APRN) IDFPR (209023899)

NURSE PRACTITIONER PRACTICUM EXPERIENCE

Family Practice – Dr. Pecherek-Rogers, Rogers Medical Ltd (Plainfield, IL)	375 Hours
Obstetrics and Gynecology Care – Dr. Battistini, Springfield OB/GYN (Joliet, IL)	147 Hours

NP Skills include:

- Diagnose or treat acute health care issues, such as illnesses, infections, or injuries
- Educate patients about self-management of chronic and acute conditions, tailored to the individual with focus on diet, activity, and medication
- Analyze and interpret patient symptoms, physical exam, and diagnostics to help diagnose disease
- Provide emotional support, medical assistance, and assistance to patients and coworkers

HEALTHCARE EXPERIENCE

REGISTERED NURSE, Stroke Unit – Marian Joy Rehabilitation Hospital (Wheaton, IL) November 2019 – Present

- Provide direct patient care in a 25-bed multidisciplinary rehabilitation unit specializing in stroke
- Charge nurse responsibilities such as managed daily staff and patient assignments to ensure adequate coverage throughout
- Performed daily rounds to assess patient satisfaction and address patient concerns in a timely manner
- Performed wide range of wound care from simple to complex dressing changes including wound vacs
- Management of gastrostomy tubes, foley catheters, PICC/Midlines, ostomies, and tracheostomies
- Demonstrated commitment to use of professional judgment and critical thinking to problem solve in acute care environment; excellent interpersonal skill in working with various members of a health care team
- Respond to emergencies within the hospital and serve as resource on a team in acute cases such as suspected MI, stroke, sepsis, and respiratory distress

REGISTERED NURSE – Asthma and Allergy Wellness Center (St. Charles, IL) January 2019 – October 2019

- Assist physician throughout various procedures to help workflow throughout the office and guide patients from check-in to check-out
- Perform procedures such as spirometry, NiOX, and allergy testing on various patients throughout the lifespan
- Administer immunotherapy injections and biologic medication treatment to various patients for treatment of asthma or allergies

- Assist in creation of individualized immunotherapy vials for patient's receiving immunotherapy for severe allergy symptoms
- Perform prior authorizations on various medications

HEALTHCARE EXPERIENCE CONTINUED

REGISTERED NURSE, Medical-Surgical – Illinois Valley Community Hospital (Peru, IL) August 2018 – January 2019

- Provide direct patient care in a 40-bed multidisciplinary Med Surg unit specializing in orthopedics
- Performed daily rounds to assess patient satisfaction and address patient concerns in a timely manner
- Performed wide range of wound care from simple to complex dressing changes including wound vacs
- Monitored patients post-operatively for signs of complication or infection
- Demonstrated commitment to use of professional judgment and critical thinking to problem solve in acute care environment; excellent interpersonal skill in collaborating with various members of a health care team
- Management of gastrostomy tubes, foley catheters, PICC/Midlines, ostomies, and nasogastric tubes

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

PHARMACY TECHNICIAN – Jewel Osco (Oswego, IL)

August 2015 – November 2019

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS & MEMBERSHIP

Member | Sigma Theta Tau

June 2019 – Present

- Stay up to date on latest changes in nursing and continue education through various resources

Member | Shard Governance Committee

November 2020 – Present

- Focus on creating evidence-based protocols to help improve patient and employee satisfaction. Focus on increasing patient safety, decreasing infection, and decreasing fall rates.

ADDITIONAL SKILLS/TRAINING

- Fluent in Polish
- Excellent skills in Microsoft Office Products
- Proficient in EPIC (EMR)
- Specialized training in management of stroke patients
- Knowledge of immunotherapy
- Stroke Scale Certification