

Adam Rose

adam_rose95@outlook.com
(817) 627-9734
6825 Norma Street
Fort Worth, TX

Summary

Seasoned critical care registered nurse with expertise in patient care management and unit development. Emphasis on process improvement for better quality outcomes for both the critical care patient and the nursing unit.

Experience

Crisis Response RN

Triage Staffing • Omaha, Nebraska
04/2021 - Present

- Covid-19 response
- Rapid environment adaptation to meet unit standards of care
- High level care for the acute critical care patient
- Assistance in integration of the new graduate registered nurse to the nursing unit while aiding in development of both introductory and higher level skills

Charge Nurse

Baylor University Medical Center (BUMC) • Dallas, Texas
06/2019 - 04/2021

- Medical and neuroscience critical care
- Assist with daily staffing needs alongside unit supervisor and manager
- Collaborate with nurse leaders and staff RN to improve unit processes and identify educational needs of the unit
- Unit based council participation and institution project participation to influence system-wide care improvement

Patient Care Technician

Texas Health Resources Arlington Memorial • Arlington, Texas
12/2017 - 06/2019

- Collaboration with the bedside RN to produce quality outcomes for the neuroscience patient
- Participation in unit based council to aid in development of PCT skills through RN assistance
- Unit project participation to improve timing of insulin administration and delivery of meals for safer outcomes

Skills

- Expertise with EPIC and Meditech
- Patient Safety Advocate
- Process Improvement
- Critical thinking/Problem solving

Education

Bachelor of Science in Nursing

The University of Texas at Arlington • Arlington, Texas
06/2019

- Magna Cum Laude

Languages

- English
- Conversational Spanish