I am a positive and enthusiastic individual with great communication skills. I possess the ability to quickly learn new skills/concepts. I am an excellent team player and can collaborate with the interdisciplinary team to provide the best care to patients. I am seeking a position in a reputable healthcare setting where I can apply my skills. If given this opportunity, I will apply my experience in patient care, visual monitoring of patients, and computer information systems skills to enhance and improve patient goals and outcomes of your company.
