

Chinwe Tony Ndu

Garland, TX 75043

acndu@yahoo.com

+1 214 403 1770

- ✓ Ability to conduct research for CMS in standardizing assessment process for all post-acute care settings
- ✓ Knowledge of and adherence to current nursing theory and practice, infection control, and wound care standards of practice.
- ✓ Solid academic record as well as professional experience in nursing
- ✓ Well organized and detail oriented with proven abilities in time management and critical thinking
- ✓ Work well under pressure and able to meet rigid deadlines
- ✓ Communicate effectively with the public, staff, and all levels of management
- ✓ Strong leadership and organizational skills
- ✓ Experienced in fast paced and high-volume environments
- ✓ Unique ability to adapt quickly to challenges and changing environments
- ✓ Knowledge of, Excel, Microsoft Word, general internet savvy
- ✓ Ability to work effectively with diverse population
- ✓ Knowledge of clinical operations and procedures

Authorized to work in the US for any employer

Work Experience

Registered Nurse

Ernest healthcare

August 2016 to Present

Medical Surgical Certified Registered Nurse by ANCC May 20016- present

House Supervisor RN

Mesquite Speciality Hospital - Mesquite, TX

January 2015 to Present

See attached resume

Staff Assignment, and Development

ACLS - Mesquite, TX

January 2015 to Present

MESQUITE TEXAS JAN 2015 TO PRESENT

HOUSE SUPERVISOR

- Develops, maintains, and implements nursing policies and procedures in conformity with current standards of nursing practice
- Supervises the functions of nursing departments in accordance with departmental standards
- Oversees nursing department staffing, staff assignment, and development
- Provides education, direction, and mentorship of the nursing team's function, purpose, and goals

- Collaborates with physicians, consultants, community agencies, and institutions to improve the quality of services.
- Collaborates with senior leadership and is actively involved in the performance improvement process.
- Collaborates on an interdepartmental level to integrate nursing services with the patient's total health care plan.
- Participates in weekly team conference for patients
- Coordinates patient's admission and discharge

METHODIST DALLAS MEDICAL CENTER

January 2015 to January 2017

Intensive Care Unit/Telemetry Floor

- ✓ Provided nursing care to patient with sepsis
- ✓ Provided nursing care to patient in hypertensive or hypotensive crisis
- ✓ Ability to care for chest tube, JP drain, peg tube etc.
- ✓ Ability to care for neurological patients
- ✓ Ability to care for COPD exacerbation and pneumonia patients
- ✓ Ability to care for patient on cardiac monitoring
- ✓ Ability to care for acute stroke patients

ADVANCED HEALTHCARE AND REHABILITATION OF GARLAND

December 2005 to June 2015

ADON

- ✓ Provided nursing supervision to nursing home bound patients
- ✓ Provided in-services on nursing care to nurses and assistive personnel
- ✓ Oversaw, guided, and mentored the staff for assigned shift to ensure patients' plan of care
- ✓ Effectively managed the hospital's resources
- ✓ Served as a clinical resource
- ✓ Ensured that staff met all regulatory requirements
- ✓ Ensured that staff abided by the company policies and procedures
- ✓ Promoted team and individual growth

Vocational Nurse

August 2005 to August 2014

Bachelor of Science in Economics November 1997

Patient Care technician/Telemetry Monitor Technician

BAYLOR UNIVERSITY MEDICAL CENTER DALLAS

2004 to August 2005

Provided care/assistance with activities of daily living

- ✓ Accurately measured and documented intake and output
- ✓ Accurately measured and documented vital signs
- ✓ Printed and notified nurses on timely basis of patient's changes in cardiac rhythm
- ✓ Promptly notified nurses of changes in patients vital signs especially from their baseline

Education

Bachelor of Science in Nursing

Texas Woman's University

August 2014

VOCATIONAL NURSING in Vocational Nursing

Navorro College

August 2004 to August 2005

Bachelor of Science in Economics

Abia State University Uturu Nigeria

1997

Nursing Licenses

RN

Expires: August 2022

State: TX

Skills

- Co-ordinate and manage care for critically ill patients
- Ability to recognize and provide early interventions to patients
- Ability to care for patient on vasoactive drugs
- Ability to care for patient on the ventilator
- Ability to care for post-surgical patients as well as post vascular surgery patients
- Assist with insertion of central lines and bronchoscope
- Co-ordinate and manage care for group of patients in an acute setting
- Ability to assess patient conditions and think critically to prevent complications
- Ability to supervise nurses providing care to, acute care, LTACH, Nursing home, and home-bound patients
- Critical Care Experience
- ICU Experience
- Nursing
- Infection Control Training
- Medication Administration
- EMR Systems
- Triage
- Nurse Management
- Experience Administering Injections
- Hospital Experience
- Epic

- Laboratory Experience
- Patient Care
- Case Management
- Supervising Experience
- Vital Signs
- Medical Imaging
- Venipuncture
- Phlebotomy

Certifications and Licenses

BLS Certification

ACLS Certification