

Eric Stanulis

Respiratory Care Therapy

👤 Profile

A service-oriented individual with a diverse military, civilian and clinical background. Exhibits the aptitude to excel in complex problem-solving situations. Consistently demonstrates strong clinical and leadership skills.

Details

estanulis9@aol.com

Skills

Adaptability

Communication Skills

Time Management

Collaboration & Teamwork

Leadership

Attention to Detail

🎓 Education

M.S. in Healthcare Administration, Southern New Hampshire University

September 2017 — March 2022

- 3.975 GPA
- Knowledge of healthcare payment systems and reimbursement methods
- Policy memorandum analysis and research
- Strategic analysis of not-for-profit organizations
- Organizational analysis report of healthcare economic principles
- Development of quality improvement plans for healthcare organizations
- Program development of quality and value of patient care

B.S. in Organizational Leadership w/Honors, Charter Oak State College

September 2010 — May 2012

A.S. in Respiratory Care, Naugatuck Valley Community College

September 2013 — May 2015

Ventilators- PB 840, Servo I, Aveas, V-60s, Visions; EHRs- Epic, Cerner, Meditech

📁 Employment History

Critical Care Respiratory Therapist at Sarasota Memorial Hospital

June 2016 — Present

Level 2 Trauma Center

ICU/ER/Bedside Bronchoscopies. & Perc. Trach. assist/Vent. Mgmt.

Drager & Hamilton ventilators

Allscripts-EHR

Registered Respiratory Therapist at Manatee Memorial Hospital

November 2015 — March 2017

ICU/ER/CVICU; Drager ventilators; Cerner EHR

📄 Licensure

FL- RRT license #14553

May 2021 — May 2023

CT- RRT license #3179

August 2021 — August 2022

🏆 Military Accomplishments

Awarded Airman of the Quarter and Year 1999

Awarded Professional of the Month and Quarter 1999