

Angela Warner

Olympia, WA 98501

bluemoon614@mac.com

+1 910 429 4130

Work Experience

Joint Base Lewis-McChord, Perioperative Nurse

Madigan Army Medical Center, Department of Anesthesia and Operative Services/OR

June 2018 to Present

- Assigned as a project officer in the following roles: Perioperative Clinical Service Nurse/Logistics Coordinator in a 243-bed Level II Trauma Regional Medical Center with a 14 room operating suite averaging 1,100 surgical procedures per month.
- Provided specialized perioperative care to patients undergoing a variety of procedures ranging from highly complex, with high acuity and/or trauma surgeries to routine cases by implementing optimal perioperative nursing care to all critically/ acutely ill patients from infants to geriatrics by implementing the nursing process in accordance with professional standards as a multidisciplinary approach to meet the needs of the surgical patient and their family members.
- Assess patients' current health status in order to formulate nursing care plans, which includes preparing goals based upon nursing diagnosis, and developing patient outcomes.
- Managed patient care for a wide range of procedures of an advanced nature and difficulty, such as procedures with high susceptibility to infection, and require bodily functions to be mechanically assisted by life support equipments.
- Selected as a charge nurse for the operating room, efficiently manages 14 surgical suites and 35 RNs and number of surgical technicians, IOT provide safe surgical care to our beneficiaries.
- Serves as a DaVinci robotic's Service, General Surgery, Vascular and Plastic's surgery service nurse. Responsible for supervising, managing, directing and coordinating the procurement and maintenance of all consumables and capital equipment needs for surgical procedures in the Department of Anesthesia and Operative Services(DOAOS)and supporting specialty departments.

Perioperative Nurse

Carl R. Darnall Army Medical Center, Perioperative Nursing Services/OR - Fort Hood, TX

September 2016 to June 2018

- Clinical Perioperative nurse in a regional, level II trauma medical center with a 8 room operating suite averaging 750 surgical procedures per month. Provide optimal Perioperative nursing care to all critically/ acutely ill patients from infants to geriatrics implementing the nursing process in accordance with professional standards as a multidisciplinary approach to meet the needs of the surgical patient and their family members.
- Planned and facilitated patient/family teaching providing essential information to promote active involvement in the health care process. Participates and contributes with unit process improvement initiatives, staff development and education, continuing education.
- Assigned as the lead services nurse for Plastics Service, General Surgery, DaVinci Robotic's Service Nurse managing new equipment purchase while maintaining fiscal management of constrained resources.

Med/Surg Nurse

Carl R. Darnall Army Medical Center, Medical/Surgical (Adult/Pediatric)Unit - Fort Hood, TX
February 2012 to September 2016

- Assigned as a medical/Surgical Nurse for an adult/pediatric unit, provided care to adults and pediatric medical and surgical patients.
- Planned and facilitated patient/family teaching providing essential information to promote active involvement in the health care process. Participates and contributes with unit process improvement initiatives, staff development and education, continuing education.

Education

Bachelor of Science in Nursing

University of Texas Health Science Center San Antonio
December 2012

Skills

- Nursing
- Nurse Management
- Medication Administration
- Process Improvement
- Case Management
- Hospital Experience
- Fiscal Management
- Cerner
- EMR Systems
- Infection Control Training
- Program Management
- Vital Signs
- Military Experience
- Laboratory Experience
- Experience Administering Injections
- Strategic Planning
- Social Work
- Managed Care
- Quality Assurance

Military Service

Branch: United States Army

Service Country: United States

Rank: Captain
December 1994 to April 2022

Certifications and Licenses

CNOR

BLS Certification

RN

Secret Clearance