

OBJECTIVE	To gain a Registered Nurse position for an opportunity to get exposure to the best nursing practices and procedures. Dedicated to providing quality services and cultivate strong relationships with patients to ensure optimal care and contribute towards organizational growth.
EDUCATION	University of Memphis Loewenberg Collage of Nursing Bachelor of Science in Nursing	May 2020
Work Experience	Regional One Health, Memphis, TN May 2020-present Emergency Room Registered Nurse <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide direct quality care to patients including daily monitoring, recording, and evaluating of medical conditions • Collaborated with various healthcare professionals to ensure effective patient care • Monitored patients and conducted detailed reports • Provide nursing care within a Level 1 Trauma Center • Applied expertise in prompt patient condition assessments on patients upon arrival • Contribute to discharge planning and teaching to patients • Lead and mentored Nurse externs and University students
CLINICAL EXPERIENCE	Regional One Health- Jefferson Emergency Department January 2020-April 2020 Student Nurse Extern <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Obtained and recorded patient’s vital signs, intake and output and blood glucose. ▪ Worked alongside registered nurse and observed medication administration and assisted in procedures ▪ Transported patients, charts, specimen, equipment, and supplies ▪ Collaborated with physicians and healthcare staff to provide appropriate care for the patient ▪ Managed 3:1 patient ratio assisting supervising RN Regional One Health-Trauma ICU Fall 2019 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Cared for critically ill trauma patients in the Trauma ICU and Trauma ED ▪ Managed and assisted arterial lines, chest tubes, and mechanical ventilators ▪ Managed 3:1 patient ratio assisting supervising RN Methodist Le Bonheur Germantown Hospital, Memphis, TN Spring 2019 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Developed and implemented nursing care plans for patients ▪ Obtained and recorded patient’s vital signs, intake and output and blood glucose. ▪ Worked alongside registered nurse and observed medication administration ▪ Transported patients, charts, specimen, equipment, and supplies.
Professional Skills	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strong attention to detail • Patient and family advocacy • Knowledge of professional nursing theory and practice to provide and evaluate patient care • Great interpersonal Skills • Highly organized • Ability to multitask efficiently and effectively • Knowledge of organizations policies, regulations, and procedures

