

Tanya Taylor, BSN, RN
760-870-8990
TaylorTanya1975@gmail.com

EDUCATION

Frontier Nursing University	MSN	on hiatus..
Walden University	BSN	11/2017-02/2020
Tarrant County Community College	ADN	08/2007-12/2009

EMPLOYMENT

Women's Specialists of Fayette OB/GYN Phone Triage 05/2021-present

WellStar North Fulton Labor and Delivery Nurse (Inpatient) 09/2020-06/2021

Labor and delivery nurse responsible for providing direct care to laboring and immediate postpartum patients in a 12-bed unit with 6 labor rooms, 4 triage/exam rooms, and 2 recovery beds.

Responsible for triaging patients with quick assessment for symptoms of labor and any complications of pregnancy, while communicating succinctly with providers to provide relevant, efficient, and safe care.

Responsible for the development and implementation of the patient's nursing care plan and evaluate its effectiveness.

Provide information and support to patients and family members regarding conditions and plans.

Ability to establish Intravenous Access and Safely and therapeutically administer wide range of medications, such as Pitocin, Cytotec, Cervadil, magnesium sulfate, antibiotics, analgesics, and blood products, including administration of vaccinations to mothers and infants.

Ability to identify change in patient status and keep an open line of communication between the physician and other members of the interdisciplinary team.

Barstow Community Hospital Perinatal Nurse (Inpatient) 3/2019-08/2020

Perinatal nurse responsible for providing direct care to antepartum, labor, and postpartum patients in a 6-bed perinatal unit with 3 labor rooms, 3 postpartum rooms, and 2 triage/exam rooms.

Responsible for providing direct care for up to 4 couplets in the post-partum setting.

Responsible for triaging patients with quick assessment for symptoms of labor and any complications of pregnancy, while communicating succinctly with providers to provide relevant, efficient, and safe care.

Responsible for the development and implementation of the patient's nursing care plan and evaluate its effectiveness.

Provide information and support to patients and family members regarding conditions and plans.

Safely and therapeutically administer wide range of medications, such as Pitocin, Cytotec, Cervadil, magnesium sulfate, antibiotics, analgesics, and blood products, including administration of vaccinations to mothers and infants.

Ability to identify change in patient status and keep an open line of communication between the physician and other members of the interdisciplinary team.

Dallas Children's Health System Pediatric Skilled Nurse

8/2014-06/2018

Skilled Nurse responsible for providing direct skilled nursing care to pediatric patients in the home care setting: gastrostomy care, wound assessment and care, ostomy care, various infusions (Factor, IVIG, Elaprase, Solumedrol, Hizentra, etc), lab-draws, weight checks, nutritional assessment, PICC/CVC/IVAD/PIV care, APV care, MACE, pre and post-transplant monitoring, post cardiac surgery care.

Served as a case management liaison between the pediatric patient home needs and the hospital, ambulatory clinics, physicians, and other service providers throughout the community.

Assessment and collection of data identifying underlying family needs to appropriately implement an individualized plan of care in home setting.

Ability to assess patient needs for rehabilitation therapy services, social services, and medical equipment and shares information with appropriate service provider.

Communicate continually with patients' families, physicians, multidisciplinary team members, and payers to facilitate coordination of clinical activities to enhance seamless transition from one level of care to another.

Assist with precepting new nurses to home care.

Perform family centered care and teaching related to care plans individualized for each patient and family.

Ability to detect change in patient status and report immediately to appropriate members of the interdisciplinary team.

Ability to coordinate with other health care team members to assess, plan, implement, and evaluate care plans and make revisions based on varying needs of the patient and family.

Assist patient families in accessing care and social services outside the home care department.

Dallas Children's Ambulatory Care Clinic RN 08/2013-08/2014

Clinic nurse for 5 Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation Physicians.

Provided case management services between the pediatric patient home & hospital, ambulatory clinics, physicians, and other service providers throughout community.

Assess and collect data identifying underlying family needs to implement an individualized plan of care in home setting.

Ability to assess patient needs for rehabilitation therapy services, social services, and medical equipment and shares information with appropriate service provider

Communicates continually with patients and families, physicians, multidisciplinary team members and payers to facilitate coordination of clinical activities and to enhance seamless transition from one level of care to another.

Assist physicians with positioning pediatric patients for Botox injections and Baclofen pump refills.

Quest Group Staffing Contract Nurse 10/2011-08/2013

Medical Surgical nurse providing staffing for third party healthcare facilities.

Ability to integrate and adapt, taking into consideration the facilities policies and procedures.

Provide direct patient care to adult and pediatric population in the inpatient setting.

Responsible for providing direct care for a 5:1 patient to nurse ratio in a 20 bed UNIT.

Develop and implement patient's plan of care and evaluate its effectiveness.

Ability to manage multiple patients safely and effectively.

Provide information and support to patients and family members regarding conditions and plans.

Safely and therapeutically administer wide range of medications, such as antibiotics, analgesic drips, insulin, antiemetics, antihistamine, and blood products.

Ability to identify change in patient status and keep an open line of communication between physicians and other members of the interdisciplinary team.

Knowledge and skills necessary to provide care appropriate to patients ranging in age from 0 to geriatrics.

Demonstrate knowledge of the principles of growth and development over the life span.

Ability to assess data reflective of the patient's status and interpret the appropriate information needed identify each patient's requirements relative to his or her age-specific needs.

Ability to float to multiple units and provide the care needed as described in the unit's policies and procedures.

Cook Children's Medical Center

Staff Nurse

12/2009-01/2012

Medical Surgical nurse responsible for providing direct care for a 5:1 patient to nurse ratio in a 20 bed unit.

Ability to integrate and adapt, taking into consideration the facilities policies and procedures.

Provide direct patient care to adult and pediatric population in the inpatient setting.

Responsible for providing direct care for a 5:1 patient to nurse ratio in a 20 bed UNIT.

Develop and implement patient's plan of care and evaluate its effectiveness.

Ability to manage multiple patients safely and effectively.

Provide information and support to patients and family members regarding conditions and plans.

Safely and therapeutically administer wide range of medications, such as antibiotics, analgesic drips, insulin, antiemetics, antihistamine, and blood products.

Ability to identify change in patient status and keep an open line of communication between physicians and other members of the interdisciplinary team.

Knowledge and skills necessary to provide care appropriate to patients ranging in age from 0 to geriatrics.

Demonstrate knowledge of the principles of growth and development over the life span.

Ability to assess data reflective of the patient's status and interpret the appropriate information needed identify each patient's requirements relative to his or her age-specific needs.

LICENSURE:

Registered Nurse Georgia-Multistate 02/19/2021-01/1/2023 RN300833

CERTIFICATIONS

Advanced Cardiac Life Support 02/2023

Pediatric Advanced Life Support 02/2023

Basic Life Support for Healthcare Providers 02/2023

AWHONN Advanced Fetal Monitoring	04/2022
Intermediate Fetal Monitoring	05/2021

AFFILIATIONS

AWHONN	member since 2019
ACNM	member since 2020

PROFESSIONAL REFERENCES

Upon request.