

Asma Noori

RN

Tracy, CA 95377

nooriasma2@gmail.com

+1 209 914 8736

Willing to relocate: Anywhere

Authorized to work in the US for any employer

Work Experience

RN Staff Nurse

Doctors Medical Center of Modesto - Modesto, CA

December 2021 to Present

- Knowledgeable of the appropriate medical procedures in providing complex care during hospitalization for MI, CVA, CHF, COPD, diabetic complications, trauma injuries, amputations, hip and knee replacement, etc.
- Assign to oversee CNA staff, delegate assignments, and resolve daily clinical issues and employee conflicts.
- Process new admissions, review PRI forms, perform physical and mental status assessments, and compose care plans.
- Conduct several medical procedures such as inserting IV's, managing PCC lines and triple lumen catheters, C-Pap, nebulizer therapies, wound/ostomy care, J-P drains, g-tube feedings, and Foley insertions.
- Study patient's medical history, test results and treatment plans.
- Instruct telemetry unit staff on pts care and treatment plan.
- Collaborate with health care specialists and reporting changes and deteriorating conditions.
- Perform daily rounds to identify and stage new and pre-existing pressure ulcers, vascular and surgical wounds.
- Proficient in investigating and reporting various incidents while responding to all emergencies and cardiac arrest codes.
- Utilize adequate expertise to develop therapy plans with a multi-disciplinary team while participating in discharge planning.
- Professionally prepare patients and family members for transition to home via specifying potential complications, medications, wound care, diabetes monitoring, bowel/bladder management, ambulation, fall prevention, and ADL skills.

Education

City College of San Francisco - San Francisco, CA

August 2016 to May 2017

High School Diploma

Merrill F. West High School

Associate

San Joaquin Delta college

ADN in Nursing

Fresno City College - Fresno, CA

Nursing Licenses

RN

Expires: May 2023

State: CA

Skills

- CATHETER (1 year)
- SCANNING (Less than 1 year)
- TELEPHONE (2 years)
- LPN
- LVN
- Nursing
- Medication administration
- Hospice care

Languages

- Dari - Expert
- Hindi - Expert
- Urdu - Expert

Certifications and Licenses

Registered Nurse (RN)

- Charge nurse of 10-15 patients, providing complex care following acute hospitalization of MI, CVA, COPD, CHF, ESRD, Hip/Knee replacement and various surgeries.
- Oversee CNA staff; delegate assignments, resolve clinical issues and employee conflicts.
- Process new admissions, perform physical/ mental status assessments, initiate and maintain care plans.
- Administer Medication, C-Pap, nebulizer therapies, wound/ ostomy care, J-P drains, g-tube feedings and Foley insertions.
- Make daily rounds to identify and stage new and pre-existing pressure ulcers, vascular and surgical wounds.
- Develop therapy plans with a multi-disciplinary team and participate in discharge planning.

- Prepare patients and family members for transition to home via education on potential complication, medications, wound care, diabetes monitoring, bowel/ bladder management, ambulation, fall prevention and ADL skills.

BLS Certification

LVN

Additional Information

SKILLS

Vital Signs

Foley Catheter insertion and removal

Bladder Scanning

Wound dressing care

Immunization

Nasogastric tube feeding

Tracheostomy suctioning and care Pre and Post-surgical nursing care

Patient Assessment

Telephone Translation