

Meghan Walsh

Chicago, IL 60601

meghanmichelewalsh@gmail.com

+1 773 992 7819

Work Experience

Registered Nurse (RN)

Michigan Avenue Primary Care - Chicago, IL

January 2021 to Present

- Collaborate with providers to review and interpret lab and imaging reports in order to plan and implement patient care recommendations and optimize patient outcomes.
- Contact patients with their results and recommendations via phone or portal message.
- Deliver direct patient care including medication and vaccine administration, IV placement and lab draws.
- Address all refill requests including patient portal messages, requests received via phone, and faxed refill requests from pharmacies.

Registered Nurse, Pediatric Intensive Care Unit

Ann & Robert H. Lurie Children's Hospital

November 2018 to Present

- Stabilize, manage and care for acute and chronically ill children from the ages of 2 months to 21 years.
- Care for children requiring peritoneal dialysis, ventilators, tracheotomies, arterial lines, chest tubes, body cooling, nitric therapy, VP shunts, EVDs, and inotrope drip titration.
- Apply PALS algorithms during bedside resuscitation.
- USP <800> SuperUser, responsible for teaching, enforcing, and being a resource for the new standards for safe handling of hazardous drugs to a 145 nursing staff unit.

Registered Nurse, Pediatric Hematology Oncology Unit

University of Chicago, Comer Children's Hospital

July 2017 to September 2018

Provide high quality care to children with hematology/oncology diagnoses as well as critical bone marrow transplant recipients

- Administer chemotherapy and blood products safely while assessing and treating adverse effects
- Patient advocate for every patient, whilst providing the diligent efficient nursing care as well as supportive care for patients going through emotional life events.
- Member of the Quality Committee, responsible for preparing the staff and unit for The Joint Commission readiness

Registered Nurse, Adult Hematology Oncology BMT Unit

Loyola University Medical Center

July 2016 to July 2017

Responsible for providing and managing exceptional care of oncology, hematology, and bone marrow transplant patients including adolescents to advanced geriatric age.

- Educate patients, caregivers, and families regarding diagnosis, treatment plan, and medications.

- Administration of blood products, chemotherapy, biotherapy medications, and stem cell infusions.
- Proficient in IV insertions, dressing changes and maintenance of central lines
- Communicate and work effectively with physicians, nurse practitioners, and respiratory therapists to provide excellent care to patient population.

Education

Bachelors of Science in Nursing

Saint Louis University

May 2016

Bachelors of Science in Health and Society

Beloit College

May 2014

Skills

- Critical Care Experience
- Vital Signs
- Laboratory Experience
- Hospital Experience
- Nursing
- EMR Systems
- Phlebotomy
- English
- Typing
- Experience Administering Injections
- ICU Experience
- Medication Administration
- Epic
- Ventilator
- Basic IV
- Patient Care
- Medical Imaging
- Triage
- Medical Records
- Venipuncture
- Order Entry
- Transcription
- Medical Office Experience

Certifications and Licenses

CPR Certification

BLS Certification

RN