

Destiny Hodge

404-424-3818 | destinyhodgebsn@gmail.com

Objectives

- To implement and facilitate excellent and safe patient care based on nursing theory, research, and evidence-based practice.
- To become a nurse leader in Emergency Nursing, Mental Health Nursing, and Critical Care Nursing

Education

Chamberlain College of Nursing | Atlanta, Georgia
Nursing, Bachelor of Science in Nursing
December 2016

Licenses and Certifications

GA Compact Registered Nurse-RN265991 exp. January 2023
California Registered Nurse – RN95234233 exp. December 2023
ACLS Certification exp. October 2022
PALS Certification exp. November 2022
BLS Certification exp. October 2022
TNCC Certification exp. December 2025
Behavioral Violence Prevention exp. July 2022
NIHSS Certification – August 2022

Volunteer Services

The Bloom Closet

Experience

Southern Regional Medical Center (Riverdale, Ga)– Emergency Department

July 2017-February 2021 (Full Time & PRN)

Emory Healthcare (float to multiple hospitals Atlanta, Ga) – ESP, Float Pool, ICU, ED

June 2019-September 2020 (PRN)

Grady Memorial Hospital (Atlanta, Ga) – Emergency Department (Level I Trauma)

July 2019- January 2020 (PRN Contract)

Rio Grande Regional Hospital (McAllen, Tx) – Float Pool, Texas Covid Crisis Response Team

July 2020- October 2020 (Contract)

DHR at Renaissance (McAllen, Tx) - Covid Crisis ICU Response Team

November 2020 – February 2021

Providence Holy Cross Mission Hills (Los Angeles, Ca) ICU, PCU

February 2021- April 2021 (Contract)

Northeast Georgia Medical Center (Gainesville, Ga) – Emergency Department (Level II Trauma)
August 2021-October 2021 (Contract)

Wellstar Spalding (Griffin, Ga) – Emergency Department
June 2021 – February 2022 (PRN)

Grady Memorial Hospital (Atlanta, Ga) – Emergency Department (Level I Trauma)
November 2021-April 2022 (Contract)

Select Specialty Hospital (Knoxville, Tn) – Long Term Acute Care
May 2022 -Current (Contract)

Competent Nursing Skills

- Advocating for patients in a decisive and asserting manner during traumatic and end of life treatment
- Assessing, documenting and evaluating vital signs, cardiac rhythms and interpreting wave forms for monitoring hemodynamics in critical patients
- Starting peripheral, intraosseous, and port access in routine and traumatic events
- Performing nursing procedures, management and care for but not limited indwelling catheter insertion, basic wound care, colostomies, ileostomies, rectal tubes, chest tubes and implementing individualized care plans related to patient conditions.
- Possessing excellent critical thinking, time management, prioritization and delegation skills
- Mastering SBAR communication to quickly and effectively communicate with Physicians and other healthcare personnel in order to transact safe patient care.
- Set up, assist, access and manage placement of arterial lines and central lines.
- Obtaining and interpreting laboratory specimens from peripheral, arterial and central lines with appropriate patient identifiers
- Management of settings and troubleshooting patients on mechanical ventilators, Bi-Pap, and high flow nasal cannulas.

- Titration, calculation and management of critical drips such as but not limited to vasopressors, TPA, insulin, sedatives, antiarrhythmic and heparin while understanding the indications, dosages, side effects, interactions, and compatibility.

- Administration and management of blood and blood products with or without infusing with rapid infuser.

-Assisting in procedures requiring Rapid Sequence Intubation, Conscious Sedation, Resuscitation, Cardioversion, Defibrillation, Pacing and Dislocation Reductions.

References

Kyisha Lemond RN Charge – Grady Memorial Hospital
Kyisha24@gmail.com 404-219-8832

Lisa Watts RN Charge Nurse - Southern Regional Medical Center
Jefferson708@gmail.com 904-226-7966

Cecilia Mote RN Charge Nurse – Southern Regional Medical Center
Cecilianicole.cnl@gmail.com 706-741-8742

Brian Cesar RN Manager – Wellstar Spalding Hospital
BCesar@wellstarhealthcare.org 770-310-0418

