

Mikayla M. Oliver, BSN

St. Louis Missouri 6182250434

Mikayla.oliver@yahoo.com

An energetic and focus-driven Registered Nurse, with clinical background in polytrauma and medically-complex illnesses and/or injuries. Able to keep composure and professionalism to deliver calm, compassionate care with efficiency, under a constant state of alertness. Strong advocate of inclusive patient and family centered care.

Work Experience

Touchette Regional Hospital, Centerville IL

Favorite Healthcare Staffing Aug 2021- Feb 2022

- Provide direct patient care on Covid-19, medical surgical, medical stabilization and telemetry units
- Facilitate complete care for observation patients
- Notify physicians/ medical providers and implement tasks in response to changes in patients condition
- Cared for substance abuse patients in medical stabilization/ detoxification program

FEMA Vaccination Site, Oakland CA

Registered Nurse Feb 2021- May 2021

- Administered Pfizer and Johnson and Johnson vaccinations to clients in a fast paced yet efficient environment.

- Worked alongside National Guard, FEMA, Cal Fire, EMTs, and Paramedics to vaccinate 7-8 thousand clients per day.
- Observed clients post vaccine for 15–30-minute window.
- Educated clients about what to expect post vaccine as well as answered questions about differences between manufactures and efficacy rates.

Lifecare Hospital of Plano, Plano TX

Registered Nurse Dec 2020 – Jan 2021

- Provide direct patient care on specific COVID-19, medical surgical, and telemetry units.
- Coordinated care with physicians and other staff members to provide exceptional care while reducing risk of exposure and transmission within the hospital.
- Consistently assessed and treated patients with both pharmacological and non-pharmacological methods to maximize patient outcomes.
- Monitored EKG readings and notified the appropriate staff members if necessary, in efforts to begin treatment and optimize results.

Barnes Jewish Hospital, St. Louis MO

Registered Nurse July 2019 – Dec 2020

- Provide direct patient care to patients with a variety of traumatic injuries, to include assessment and evaluation of patient's holistic needs, with specialized training in wound/ostomy, tracheostomy, nasopharyngeal, and chest tube care

- Collaborate with other members of the interdisciplinary team to implement and monitor individual plans of care and communicate patient's conditions appropriately.

- Supervise as charge nurse on a 32-bed unit with responsibilities that include delegating nursing staff assignments, overseeing patient admissions, transfers and discharges, and responding in a calm, efficient matter to identified issues and emergencies.

- Precept new staff, to provide support and guidance on floor policy, procedures, and work flow

Education

Tennessee State University, Nashville TN

Bachelor of Science, Nursing May 2019

- Member, Student Nursing Association

Professional References

Barnes Jewish Hospital

Marsha Johnson, ACNP, B-C

Acute Care Nurse Practitioner (314) 283-2067

Mrjohnson@wustl.edu

Courtney Hollis, RN

Charge Nurse, Registered Nurse (317) 694- 5480

Courthollis11@gmail.com

Licensure

Registered Nurse (RN) Missouri-2019039645 10/11/2019-04/30/2023

Registered Nurse (RN) Illinois-041486529 10/10/2019-05/31/2022

Registered Nurse (RN) Texas-1018598 01/20/2021-09/30/2023

