Samuel Capicio

San Antonio, TX 78261
scapicio@gmail.com
+1 210 844 3821

Work Experience

Clinical Nurse
United States Air Force
June 2019 to Present

34 Bed Cardiac-Telemetry unit. busiest unit in the Department of Defense
4:1 patient to nurse ratio, up to 8:2 per team. Team nursing model.
Comprehensive and compassionate care for patients with wide variety of cardiac health issues
Charge Nurse
Preceptor

Immunization Nurse
CVS Health - San Antonio, TX
August 2021 to March 2022

Administered adult and pediatric vaccines

Occupational Health Nurse
Provenir Health
June 2020 to June 2021

COVID Screener
Screen employees, contractors, and customers and various worksites
COVID Testing
Test employees and track COVID cases within company
COVID Vaccine
Administered COVID vaccines according to company policy

Charge Nurse
San Antonio Heart, Vascular, & Rhythm Center
April 2017 to June 2019

Assist director with day to day operations and flow of the Cath lab
Manage patient safety and assist with flow of pre and post-operative care
Health Informatics
Created and designed computer charting system for the Cath lab
Main point of contact between IT and Staff
Create and screen patient charts for errors and billing
Create patient schedule for following day
Team-based nursing model by verifying LVN assessments and care provided by LVNs
Preceptor and trainer for new employees
Maintain and track inventory for pre/post procedure area
Provide safe and excellent care for post cardiac/peripheral patients

Experience with Celt, Vascade, and TRBand closure devices
Pre-Operative & Post-operative care

Medical Surgical Nurse
St.Luke's Baptist Hospital
May 2017 to April 2018

34 bed MedSurg Unit
7:1 patient to nurse ratio
Staff nurse responsible for compassionate care of both medical and post-surgical patients

Education

Bachelors of Science in Nursing
The University of Texas
December 2016

Certifications and Licenses

Texas Nursing License Certified Medical-Surgical Registered Nurse Basic Life Support Advance Cardiac Life Support