Dedicated registered nurse (RN) experienced in Labor and Delivery. My experience has given me the opportunity to travel and work in many nationally recognized hospital facilities across the country. Implementing my clinical expertise combined with building interpersonal relationships with patients, colleagues and physicians; along with strong communication leading to patient satisfaction I am versatile.

I have worked with patients from the Triage area - - registering, assessing and prioritizing in both private and teaching hospitals. In the Labor Suites-I have worked with many computerized fetal monitoring systems and newly implemented medication administration systems. Demonstrated critical thinking skills for physician decision making and possesses the ability to scrub and circulate for Cesarean Sections.

Recovery of patients from various anesthetics after delivery leads into teaching of the patient and family

I am available to challenge myself and accept a position to diversify my career in the numerous opportunities the nursing environment offers.
