

Isabel Bergmann

Bluffton, SC 29910

ibergma@g.clemson.edu

+1 843 368 9839

Work Experience

---

Charge Nurse

Memorial University Medical Center - Savannah, GA

September 2020 to Present

- Communicating effectively between nursing staff, providers, management, and administration
- Safely assigning each nurse a patient assignment taking into account different skill sets
- Organizing and facilitating patient movement between ICU's and directly admitting patients from outside facilities
- Post-operative management of cardiac surgery patients (CABG's, MVR's, AVR's, Aortic Dissection Repairs, etc.)
- Initiation, management, and titrations of cardiac specific intravenous infusions as well as paralytics and sedatives.
- Management and understanding of invasive hemodynamic monitoring such as pulmonary artery catheters, arterial lines, central venous pressure devices, etc.
- Proficient in the management of devices including but not limited to Intra-aortic Balloon Pumps, Continuous Renal Replacement Therapy (CRRT), epicardial pacing wires, BIS monitors, Train for Four, Arctic Sun Cooling Device
- Exceptional critical thinking skills and communication skills regarding hemodynamics as it relates to clinical presentation.
- Unit based education coordination
- Management and coordination of patients into and out of ICU.
- Management of staff and providing the appropriate assignment to fit each RN's individual skill level.
- Proficiency with computer applications

Charge Nurse

Emory Healthcare - Atlanta, GA

February 2018 to September 2020

- Post-operative management of cardiac surgery patients (CABG's, MVR's, AVR's, Aortic Dissection Repairs, etc.)
- Initiation, management, and titrations of cardiac specific intravenous infusions as well as paralytics and sedatives.
- Management and understanding of invasive hemodynamic monitoring such as pulmonary artery catheters, arterial lines, central venous pressure devices, etc.
- Proficient in the management of devices including but not limited to Intra-aortic Balloon Pumps, Continuous Renal

Replacement Therapy (CRRT), epicardial pacing wires, BIS monitors, Train for Four, Arctic Sun Cooling Device

- Exceptional critical thinking skills and communication skills regarding hemodynamics as it relates to clinical presentation.
- Unit based education coordination
- Management and coordination of patients into and out of ICU.
- Management of staff and providing the appropriate assignment to fit each RN's individual skill level.
- Proficiency with computer applications

Education

---

DNP in Nursing

University of South Carolina-Columbia - Columbia, SC

May 2021 to Present

Bachelor's degree in Nursing

Clemson University - Clemson, SC

August 2014 to December 2017

Skills

---

- EMR systems
- ICU experience
- Medication administration
- Acute care
- Nursing
- Laboratory experience