To Whom it may concern,

I am a Licensed Vocational Nurse inquiring about potential employment with your company. I currently have my Texas state accredited license in Vocational Nursing and believe I would be a great asset to your company. I possess proficient skills in business ethics as well as effective capabilities in patient care. Obtaining an interview would further allow me the opportunity to provide you with a more detailed description of my personal qualities and versatility. Thank you very much for your time and hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

Cesar Acuna Jr., LVN
