

Morgan Woodley

Licensed Practical Nurse

morganblevins03@gmail.com • (708) 299-3761
LinkedIn • Joint Base Lewis-McChord, WA

Compassionate and patient-centered health care professional with hands-on experience providing quality care to patients from a variety of backgrounds.

Qualifications Summary

- Well-versed in engaging with patients and families to advise on treatments and procedures.
- Instrumental in developing and managing patient care plans in accordance with individuals' needs.
- Demonstrated success in delivering emotional support and companionship to patients and monitoring patients' emotional, mental, and physical conditions.
- Expert in blood draws, follow-up care, and charting/documentation of all nursing procedures performed per patient as well as intermittent, suprapubic, and foley sterile insertion.
- Adept at collaborating well with physicians and other members of the disciplinary team for seamless and optimal care.
- Skilled in generating written and verbal reports regarding patients' care for inclusion in the patient's medical record.
- Detail-oriented individual possessing excellent communication, organizational, time management, multi-tasking, problem-solving, and decision-making skills with the ability to perform under pressure.

Areas of Expertise

- Direct Patient Care
- Patient Education
- Advanced & High-Tech Equipment
- Medication Administration
- Medical Terminology
- IV Access
- IV Medication Administration
- Sterile Dressing Changes
- Acute & Chronic Patient Care
- EMR
- Basic Operating Systems
- MS Office Suite

Career Experience

Bethel School District, Spanaway, WA
Diabetic LPN

08MAY2021 – Present

Manage variety of treatment procedures and provide high-quality nursing care to students affected by autism. Assist physicians and other health care professionals with diagnostic, therapeutic, and small surgical treatments. Prepare and administer medications and immunizations as well as monitor for signs and symptoms of complications. Maintain electronic patient medical records by providing written and verbal reports regarding patient care. Engage with patients and family members to gather information, office advice on care procedures, and provide encouragement.

- Trained students to self-administer diabetic care.
- Fostered understanding environment by effectively communicating with students and families.

Hours per week: 37

Madigan Army Medical Center, United States Army, USA
Licensed Practical Nurse

15AUG2020 – 15APR2021

Served as a soldier to perform practical nursing duties. Communicated with medical personnel to receive work guidance and exchange patient information. Cultivated healthy relationships with patients and families. Assessed patients' physical and mental well-being, as well as home settings. Delivered appropriate information to patients, peers, managers, and physicians, improving communication within patient's health care team. Performed various nursing tasks, including drawing blood and collecting the samples, taking patient vitals, suctioning mucus and tracheostomies. Inserted and managed Nasogastric Tube (NG Tube). Worked with feeding tubes, Nasojejunal Tube (NJ Tube), Percutaneous endoscopic gastrostomy (PEG), and Jejunostomy tube (J Tube). Gained expertise in medication administration and conducting comprehensive documentation. Collaborated with interdisciplinary team, including doctors, social workers, physical therapy and respiratory therapy, and CNA's.

- Devised and implemented care plans for patients aligned with individuals' needs.
- Followed physician's orders effectively and efficiently while transferring patients to appropriate facilities.
- Formulated care plans by utilizing effective nursing care and time management skills.
- Alerted the medical team of the patient's worsening condition based on the individual's unique baseline by closely monitoring any negative changes.

Hours per week: 40

Walgreens, Oak Lawn, IL
Pharmacy Technician

FEB2017 – FEB2018

Collected written prescriptions and refill requests from patients and determined completeness and accuracy of information. Adhered to safety practices to ensure quality care for patients. Maintained drug inventory through inventory control practices. Delivered quality customer service to patients, responded to inquiries, and referred people seeking medical information to pharmacists. Counted and filled prescriptions, as well as typed and attached drug labels.

- Ensured correct/timely order of necessary medications by liaising with pharmacy, doctor's office, and insurance.
- Checked the impact of missed medication days on patients.

Hours per week: 20

Education & Credentials

High School Diploma – H.L Richards High School, Oak Lawn, IL

Licenses & Certifications

LPN License – AMEDD, Ft. Bliss Texas

C.P.R Basic Life Support, American Heart Association, 2021