

Markia Levy

Objective

RN to BSN graduate seeking to obtain a challenging position in the ICU that utilizes my current skills to assist others as well as advancing in a profession that offers a stable employment opportunity. Eager to learn new skills in order to provide excellent care with an Interprofessional and holistic approach in a clinical setting.

Education

June 2013	High School Diploma	Lane Tech College Prep, Chicago IL
August 2014-2017	Associate's Degree (GS)	Harold Washington College
June 2018-September 2020	Magna Cum Laude Bachelor's of Science in Nursing	Chamberlain College of Nursing

Certification: Registered Nurse –State of Illinois / Certified Nurse Assistant /Advance Cardiovascular Life Support(ACLS), Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation Certification (BLS) /, essential ALZ certification

Achieved California and Illinois Registered Nurse License

Skills: EKG / EPIC/EPIC downtime, Cerner, phlebotomy, great communication skills / assisting patients with activities of daily living / exceptional verbal and written communication / Microsoft word / delegation of care , prioritizing patient care

Awards: Semifinalist and finalist AMITA Health employee of the month June and August

Employment History

Aya Healthcare (December 2021-March 2022) Memorial	Float Pool Travel RN level III at Torrance
Resurrection Medical Center (September 2018-November 2021)	Patient Care Technician (ICU Step-down/Surgical Telemetry unit) Transitioned to RN 11/2020-11/2021
Keys Medical Staffing (Jan 2021-present)	PRN Covid travel vaccination nurse (24hrs/week)
Frances Xavier Warde School (April 2021-May 2021)	School Nurse(24hrs/week)
CIMPAR (September 2021-present)	PRN Contract Travel Vaccination Nurse
Mobile Vax (September 2021-present)	PRN Contract Travel Vaccination Nurse
Prism Health lab (October 2021-present)	PRN Contract Travel Vaccination Nurse

Experience

Promptly respond to client call lights, build rapport with clients and their family while providing compassionate cultural competent care using evidence based practice guideline

- Collaborate with the interdisciplinary team in order to meet the needs of clients, to decrease their chance of falls, hospital acquired injuries, and regain their full mental and physical abilities prior to discharge
- Performed post-surgical and pressure injury related dressing changes
- Provide care to patients on various units such as orthopedics, bariatric, burn, and oncology with underlying basic surgical illness
- Cared for patients with chest tubes, peritoneal dialysis, various drainage catheters including urinary, CBI, wound vacuum, nephrostomy tubes, Jackson-Pratt drains, colostomy bags, TPN
- Implementing and providing continuum of care to pre-surgical and post-surgical patients using both standard and isolation precautions, care for patients positive for Covid 19
- Provide care for patients on stable ventilators and receiving assorted supplemental oxygen devices/machines
- Providing wound care using aseptic technique
- Providing end of life care to patient and families, in addition to post-mortem care
- Initiating and monitoring clients on various drips such as cardiac and heparin drips
- Preparing as well as administration of Pfizer and Johnson and Johnson vaccines
- Handling acute injuries and illness with pediatrics
- Traveling to various vaccination sites in the community administering Pfizer, Johnson & Johnson, or Moderna vaccinations

References

Graceson Huelr RN BSN
 GracesonHuelar@gmail.com
 Preceptor/charge nurse
 224 422 9537

Phalla Cristancho RN
 Phalla.Cristancho@amitahealth.org
 Charge Nurse/preceptor
 773 575 8599

Agata Szulc-Cieplicka RN BSN
 Peer
 Aszulc.cieplicka@gmail.com
 224 422-9537

Kimberly Zielinski CCRN,BSN
 Hospital Educator
 Kimberly.Zielinski@amitahealth.org
 773 758 8805