

Madison Holbrook, RN

(385)219-9479 Madisonrh20@gmail.com

- Compassionate
- Effective Communicator
- Ability to handle stressful situations
- Empathetic to the needs and concerns of patients
- Excellent time-management skills

Associates Degree of Nursing- Fortis College June, 2018-June, 2020

Experience

University of Utah Hospital Level 1 Trauma 525 Beds

Registered Nurse / Oct, 2020-Current

Provide nursing care to patients using strong organizational skills to assess patient and provide a safe environment on a specialty surgical floor and oncology/hematology infusion unit.

Surgical Unit Manager-Deanna Harward (801) 585-6917

Infusion Unit Manager- Ryan Doering (801) 213-5708

Veterans Affairs Hospital

Pharmacy Technician/ March, 2016-July, 2018

Assist licensed pharmacists with the preparation and distribution of prescription medications, fills orders for patients and ensures that they are delivered to the right units.

Smith's Food and Drug

Pharmacy Technician/ August, 2015-March, 2016

Pacifica Senior Living

CNA/ May, 2013-August 2015

Assisted with personal care needs, ambulating, feeding, and other activities of daily living

MBK Senior Living

CNA/ May 2011-2013

Assisted with personal care needs, ambulating, feeding, and other activities of daily living

Certifications/Continuing Education- AHA BLS/CPR

Volunteer Work

Utah Community Action

Head Start-2017 to Present

County run program I volunteer with that offers services to expectant mothers and entire families with priority given to those below poverty guidelines and children with disabilities.

Health Services Advisory Committee- 2018 to 2020

Health services board for UCA and Head Start programs I participate in quarterly meetings where educational activities, medical and dental referral services, prenatal program, mental health and self-reliance services are updated and concerns brought forward.