

Nancy Adera

Registered Nurse

Atlanta, GA 30326.

citynursellc@gmail.com

(386) 366-3273

Dedicated and compassionate Registered Nurse with 10 years of nursing experience in acute care as a staff, travel and strike nurse. Background in Cardiac Progressive Care/Intermediate Care, Step Down, Telemetry and Inpatient Hospice Care.

Professional Experience

Saint Vincent Hospital (Cardiac Step Down Unit) (April 2021- Current).

- Strike assignment, Crisis Assignment (US Nursing)
  - Teaching Hospital 381 beds
  - Ratio 1:4, night shift, Cardiac Step Down Unit (32 beds)
  - Utilizing Meditech power chart to document patient progress and education
  - Care for patients post open heart surgery, cardiac catheterization, valve replacements, peripheral valvular disease
  - Titrating drips including insulin, heparin, argatroban, initiating levophed, lorazepam, amiodarone •
- Interpreting telemetry strips and recognizing abnormal rhythms and addressing the same.

Emory University Hospital/Emory Orthopedic and Spine Hospital/Emory Rehab Hospital (October

2017-Present) Float Pool (Emory Agency Enterprise Staffing Pool).

- Magnet Teaching Hospital, 587 beds
- Ratio 1:4, night shift, medical surgical unit with telemetry
- Utilizing CERNER power chart to document patient progress and education
- Care for renal, pulmonary, neurology, cardiac, liver, oncology, hospice patients.
- Ability to adapt to different units.

Emory University Hospital Midtown (Medical Progressive Care Unit) (June 2017-September 2017).

- Magnet Teaching hospital, 511 beds, Level 1 trauma
- Travel assignment (Premier Healthcare)
- Ratio 1:5-6, 50 beds, night shift, medical surgical unit with telemetry
- Utilizing CERNER power chart to document patient education
- Medical Surgical. Care for renal, pulmonary, cardiac, liver, surgical and hospice patients.
- Interpreting telemetry strips and recognizing abnormal rhythms and addressing the same

Grady Memorial Hospital (Medical Intermediate Care Unit) August 2016 – April 2017

- Travel assignment (PPR travel agency), Level 1 trauma center
- Ratio 1:4, 33 beds, night shift on a critical care unit.
- Utilizing EPIC power chart to document patient information.
- Care for renal, pulmonary, cardiac, liver, patients.
- Titrating drips including insulin, heparin, argatroban, initiating levophed, lorazepam.

- Interpreting telemetry strips and recognizing abnormal rhythms and addressing the same
- Educate patients and families on life-style modifications, medications, procedures, and other pertinent information.

Johns Hopkins (Medical Progressive care Unit) (February 2015- May 2016).

- Travel assignment (AMN/PPR travel agency), teaching hospital.
- Ratio 1:3, 21 beds in a critical care unit.
- Utilizing MEDITECH/SUNRISE power chart to capture and document patient information electronically. • Educating and providing relevant support to the patient and their families to ensure the best possible patient outcomes. • Care for pulmonary and cardiac patients; worked closely with doctors in care of patients with life threatening illnesses. • Evaluate episodic and acute responses to physical and psychosocial events.
- Interpreting telemetry strips and recognizing abnormal rhythms and addressing the same.

Florida Hospital Orlando (Cardiac PCU/Multisystem PCU) (June 2012-Jan 2015).

- Magnet Teaching hospital
- Ratio 1:3, 27 beds on a critical unit.
- Mastery of utilizing CERNER power charts to capture and document patient information electronically. • Monitoring, evaluating and managing patients with heart failure, titrating drips including primacor. • Educating and providing relevant support to the patient and their families to ensure the best possible patient outcomes. • Interpreting telemetry strips and recognizing abnormal rhythms and addressing the same
- Utilizing the nursing process to ensure the best possible patient outcomes
- Mastery of adopting and utilizing CERNER power chart to capture and document patient information electronically. • Evaluation of medical records on a consistent basis to ensure accurate and appropriate patient care. • Administration of oral, subcutaneous and intravenous (PO/SQ/IV) medications, inserting peripheral IVs, dressing changes to central lines.
- Transferring pertinent patient information and knowledge to subsequent care-givers to ensure accurate and appropriate care is administered going forward.
- Educate patients and families on life-style modifications, medications, procedures, and other pertinent information.

Education

Master's of Science in Nursing -2019

Columbus State University, Columbus, GA.

Bachelor of Science in Nursing - 2014

University of West Florida, Pensacola, Florida.

Associate in Science in Nursing – 2011

Keiser University, Orlando, Florida.

Licenses/ Certifications

Registered Nurse Licenses: Georgia: Multistate (2023), Washington (2023), Massachusetts (2024), Michigan (2024).

ACLS Advanced Cardiac Life Support (April, 2024)

BLS Certification (April, 2024)

NIHSS Stroke Certification (2024)