PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY:

I am a new graduate RN (Registered Nursing) who is bilingual in Hmong and English. I realized that nursing was my passion when I started out as a caregiver and noticed the appreciation I get from my clients. It may not seem much to others but every small detail that I was able to help my clients, they were truly thankful for my assistance, and it was also rewarding to me. I have learned a great deal throughout my nursing journey, and I am ready to join your health team to deliver top-class patient care skills alongside skillful nurses.
