

Tennie Whyte, BSN, RN.

1828 Ferguson Road. Harleton, TX 75651
903-424-8495 • tsmelley11@aol.com

Career Objective

Registered nurse looking to advance critical care experience in an intensive care unit setting. BSN Graduate from the University of Texas at Tyler, with clinical experience and exposure to Longview health care facilities. My previous experience in the health care field has proven to demonstrate my dedication, hardworking ethics and focus towards achieving patient-centered care. My desire is to obtain a future career in a facility who strives for quality and patient focused care.

Education

Bachelor of Science in Nursing, BSN

December 2018

The University of Texas at Tyler – Longview, Texas

Professional Experience

Registered Nurse

Intensive Care Unit of Christus Good Shepherd

December 2020-November-2011

- Effective in quickly assessing situations to prioritize planning and implementation of quality patient care
- Responsible for nursing management in the critically ill requiring mechanical ventilation
- Experienced with titrating various drips and vasopressors for life sustaining measures
- Conscientious in delivering family education in a compassionate manner regarding end of life care

Registered Nurse

Intensive Care Unit of Longview Regional Medical Center

July 2020-Jan 2021; November 2021-Current

- Effective in quickly assessing situations to prioritize planning and implementation of quality patient care
- Responsible for nursing management in the critically ill requiring mechanical ventilation
- Experienced with titrating various drips and vasopressors for life sustaining measures
- Conscientious in delivering family education in a compassionate manner regarding end of life care

Heart and Vascular Institute of Longview Regional Medical Center

December 2018- July 2020

Registered Nurse

- Admitted patients from emergency department with coronary artery disease, congestive heart failure, various arrhythmias and multiple co-morbidities
- Specialty nurse familiar with multiple cardiology procedures and recovering patients post operatively from the cardiac catheterization lab
- Responsible for recovering and discharge planning of cardiothoracic and vascular surgical patients
- Familiar with pharmacological intervention and titration for cardiac arrhythmia and heart failure patients
- Accustomed to fast paced setting with multiple admission and discharges while maintaining 1:4 nurse patient ratio

Heart and Vascular Institute of Longview Regional Medical Center

February 2016- December 2018

Nurse Extern/ Certified Nursing Assistant/ Unit Secretary

- Contributed to patient care by obtaining vital signs, interpreting electrocardiograms, and blood glucose levels every 4 hours for the 23 bed unit
- Assisted nurses with patient care of all post-operative bypass patients, heart cath patients, permanent and temporary pacemakers, electrophysiological ablations- proved my competency and dedication with providing high quality care in a timely, skillful, team centered manner.
- Responsible for correctly interpreting doctor's orders and progress notes and recording them into the electronic health record

Qualifications and Clinical Experience

- Trauma Nurse Core Course Certified Exp. June 2026
- American Heart association ACLS for Healthcare Providers Exp. June 2023
- American Heart association PALS for Healthcare providers Exp. June 2023
- American Heart Association BLS for Healthcare Providers Exp. December 2022
- American Stroke Association NIH Stroke Scale Certification Certified July 2021
- FEMA certified to serve in times of national crisis Certified October 2017