

assigned nurse critically high or low results.

SHUCARA RENISHA MCGINTY
REGISTERED NURSE
SHUCARA.MCGINTY@GMAIL.COM

OBJECTIVE

It is my objective to be offered a position as a contract nurse for flexibility where I can assist those most in need to foster the best health outcomes for each individual patient.

SKILLS

- Daily chart and documentation review
- Achieved effective communication skills with patients by incorporating compassion and active listening.
- Utilized critical thinking skills and the nursing process in order to deliver efficient and quality care.
- Monitored and promoted nutrition by patient feeding, recording input/output, weighing patients, and interpreting outcomes.

- Reviewed patient lab values and reported to

NURSING EXPERIENCE

NURSE CLINICIAN II • LYNDON B. JOHNSON HOSPITAL, HOUSTON • OCTOBER 2020 – November 2021

Provided care to patients on a IMU/Medical-Surgical floor based upon observation, examination, physician's diagnosis, laboratory findings, age-related issues and other pertinent information. Completed assessments in specified time frame. Identified and consistently recognized changes in normal and abnormal parameters in the patient's physiological, psychological, cultural, developmental, and spiritual needs. Implemented nursing interventions, evaluation, documentation, while following guidelines of the nursing process.

NURSE CLINICIAN II • HARRIS HEALTH SYSTEM- GULFGATE CLINIC • AUGUST 2018- CURRENT

To provide care in an ambulatory setting for healthcare maintenance, promotion, and patient teaching to encourage the best outcomes.

NURSE CLINICIAN II • THE METHODIST HOSPITAL- BAYTOWN • OCTOBER 2017 – AUGUST 2018

Provided care to patients on a Orthopedic/Medical-Surgical floor based upon observation, examination, physician's diagnosis, laboratory findings, age-related issues and other pertinent information. Completed assessments in specified time frame. Identified and consistently recognized changes in normal and abnormal parameters in the patient's physiological, psychological, cultural, developmental, and spiritual needs. Implemented nursing interventions, evaluation, documentation, while following guidelines of the nursing process.

LEAD CLINICAL NURSE • HARRIS COUNTY JUVENILE PROBATION DEPARTMENT • NOVEMBER 2015 - OCTOBER 2017

To oversee daily functions of a busy 24 hour clinic with accordance to standard of care provided by the TXBON as well as TJJD standards. Job duties also include scheduling and staffing the clinic, patient chart review, EMR implementation and planning, as well as providing care to detained youth. I also provide safe and

- Helped to prevent further patient decline by promoting mobility and patient turning on a reasonable schedule.
- Established and monitored intravenous access by assessing for phlebitis and infiltration, as well as calculating flow rates, and verification of correct order/patient.
- Administered medications using the six rights of medication administration.
- Thorough risk assessment in order to prevent further illness or injury.
- Comprehensive knowledge and skills with maintaining airway, oxygen therapy, suctioning, and use of incentive spirometer.
- Provided patient teaching on how to manage current illness and reporting of critical and potentially critical signs/symptoms. effective medical care for all juveniles in custody, utilizing a five step systemic process, which includes assessment, analysis, planning, implementation and evaluation. Daily chart and documentation review, patient triage, emergency response, assigning of specific tasks, activities and functions while maintaining appropriate supervision of LVN's and unlicensed personnel in structured health care settings for residents health care needs in accordance with program design and structure.

NURSE CLINICIAN II • MD ANDERSON CANCER CENTER • JANUARY 2015 – DECEMBER 2015

Staffed in an Orthopedic/Urology-Oncology unit who routinely housed patient's with cancer diagnoses on cardiology, orthopedic, psychiatric, hematology, hepatology, and endocrinology services. Assessed patient's condition based upon observation, examination, physician's diagnosis, laboratory findings, age-related issues and other pertinent information. Completed assessments in specified time frame. Identified and consistently recognized changes in normal and abnormal parameters in the patient's physiological, psychological, cultural, developmental, and spiritual needs. Implemented nursing interventions, evaluation, documentation, while following guidelines of the nursing process.

REGISTERED NURSE • PULSE STAFFING • SEPTEMBER 2014 – CURRENT Per Diem Home Health Nursing

NURSE CLINICIAN II • BEN TAUB HOSPITAL • MAY 2013 – DECEMBER 2014

Staffed in an Orthopedic/Telemetry unit who routinely housed patient's on cardiology, orthopedic, psychiatric, hematology, hepatology, endocrinology, trauma, and general medicine services. Assessed patient's condition based upon observation, examination, physician's diagnosis, laboratory findings, age-related issues and other pertinent information. Completed assessments in specified time frame. Identified and consistently recognized changes in normal and abnormal parameters in the patient's physiological, psychological, cultural, developmental, and spiritual needs. Implemented nursing interventions, evaluation, documentation, while following guidelines of the nursing process

Education

- BACHELOR'S OF SCIENCE IN NURSING • MAY 2013
- UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS – ARLINGTON, TX
- CUMULATIVE GPA • 3.6

REFERENCES

Ariel Shakesnider- Charge Nurse- 832-607-0557

Amanda Knox- Clinic Lead Nurse- 817-681-1102

Anna Suleiman - Supervisor- 832-398-2315

