

Olivia Diamond

Email: olivia.ambriz@yahoo.com

Cell #: (210) 860-6075

PROFESSIONAL OBJECTIVE

Dedicated and compassionate registered nurse candidate with hospital training as well as travel agency training in ICU setting as well Emergency Department setting ranging in medical/surgical and oncology settings. My goal is to obtain my bachelors in nursing and to continue my education in order to obtain my Nurse Practitioner.

Experience

Health Trust (HCA) (July 2020- present)

Travel ICU Registered Nurse

Contract Assignments

Methodist Northeast (February 2022 - present) Emergency Department ICU Hold RN

Methodist Metropolitan (June 2021 - September 2021) 3 month contract
SICU RN

Methodist South (August 2020 - June 2021) 10 month contract
COVID ICU RN

St. David's South Austin Medical Center (July 2020 - August 2020) 4 week contract
COVID ICU RN

Connally Memorial Medical Center (August 2021- February 2022)

PRN ICU Registered Nurse

University Hospital (Start Date May 6, 2019 - July 2020)

Hematology/Oncology

RN Level II – Charge Nurse (October 2019 – July 2020)

Cross Trained for Neurosurgery ICU (January 2019 - July 2020)

Essential Job Functions

Experience on a hematology/oncology acute care unit which consists of solid tumor cancer, blood cancer, and bone marrow transplant patients, as well overflow medical/surgical patients.

Chemotherapy certified (expires August 5, 2021).

Nursing Duties include:

- Obtaining history and physical, behavior, cultural, and health concerns from patient and family, directly admitting patients for chemotherapy, blood transfusions, and IVIG treatment.
- Obtain objective physical data.

- Assessing clinical data from diagnostic studies, MUGA scans and ejection fraction percent prior to administration of chemotherapy. Performing EKG's as ordered at bedside.
- Accessing mediports , per facility protocol, obtaining blood cultures once accessed, de-accessing mediports.
- Nurse blood draws from central line and venipuncture lab draws, reviewing labs and calling in critical lab values to physicians, following proper facility and physician replacement protocols which include (potassium, magnesium, phosphate, calcium), closely monitoring patient's blood counts.
- Transfusing per physician protocol orders, PRBC's (irradiated and/or washed), platelets, FFP's and cryo.
- Closing monitoring patient's vital signs, monitoring for temperature spikes, sepsis and neutropenia.
- Administering medications and titrating drips (heparin, insulin, morphine, dilaudid).
- Epidural pumps.
- Supportive care, managing pain.
- Assessing proper chemotherapy (IV and PO) orders have been signed, by oncologist and reviewing of pre and post hydration orders, chemoprotectant medications, proper IV lines of either PICC or mediport patency prior to chemotherapy administration per facility protocol.
- Checklist of chemotherapy forms, reviewing BSA, t-bili labs, blood counts, vital signs.
- Two RN verification of chemotherapy orders, administration, and actual chemotherapy drug per facility protocol, primarily consisting of high dose IV chemotherapy, subcutaneous chemotherapy and oral chemo.
- PleurX drain, PEG tube, NG tube, JP drain, and biliary drain management.
- Comfort care management of patients, hospice patients

Medley Staffing (December 2019 – September 2020)

RN – Per Diem – Pre Op/PACU & Med Surgical/Tele

Assignments

American Surgery Center – PACU RN (San Antonio, TX – Per Diem)

South Texas Spine & Surgical Hospital – Contract Position Med/Surg RN (San Antonio, TX – Per Diem)

Family Emergency Rooms at Brush Creek – Med/Surg RN (Round Rock, TX – Per Diem)

Favorite Staffing (May 2018 – August 2019)

RN – Per Diem – Med Surgical/Tele

Assignments

Post Acute Medical (PAM) (New Braunfels, TX – Per Diem)

Post Acute Medical (PAM) (San Antonio, TX – Per Diem)

Connally Memorial Medical Center (Floresville, TX – Per Diem)

Medina Regional Hospital (Hondo, TX – Per Diem)

Pinnacle Clinical Research (San Antonio, TX – Medical Center Location – Per Diem)

Kindred Hospital (San Antonio, TX – Downtown Location – Per Diem)

South Texas Spine & Surgical Hospital (San Antonio, TX – Per Diem)

Southwest General Hospital (San Antonio, TX – Per Diem)

Essential Job Functions

Experience as a per diem agency nurse where needs are needed between locations listed above. Patient population varies depending on facility needs, med/surg floor or telemetry floor. Follow all hospital and facility location protocols.

Methodist Hospital (June 2017 – April 19, 2019) - Oncology floor 8S

Essential Job Functions

Experience on an oncology acute care unit of primarily solid tumor cancers, blood cancer, and bone marrow transplant patients, sickle cell patients, and various auto-immune disease patients. Chemotherapy certified.

Nursing Duties include:

- Obtaining history and physical, behavior, cultural, and health concerns from patient and family, directly admitting patients for chemotherapy, blood transfusions, and IVIG treatment.
- Obtain objective physical data.
- Assessing clinical data from diagnostic studies, MUGA scans and ejection fraction percent prior to administration of chemotherapy.
- Accessing mediports , per facility protocol, obtaining blood cultures once accessed, de-accessing mediports.
- Nurse blood draws, reviewing labs and calling in critical lab values to physicians, following proper facility and physician replacement protocols which include (potassium, magnesium, phosphate, calcium), closely monitoring patient's blood counts.
- Transfusing per physician protocol orders, PRBC's (irradiated and/or washed), platelets, FFP's and cryo.
- Closing monitoring patient's vital signs, monitoring for temperature spikes, sepsis.
- Administering medications and titrating drips (heparin, insulin, morphine, dilaudid).
- Supportive care, managing pain.
- Assessing proper chemotherapy (IV and PO) orders have been signed, by oncologist and reviewing of pre and post hydration orders, chemoprotectant medications, proper IV lines of either PICC or mediport patency prior to chemotherapy administration per facility protocol.
- Checklist of chemotherapy forms, reviewing BSA, t-bili labs, blood counts, vital signs.
- Two RN verification of chemotherapy orders, administration, and actual chemotherapy drug per facility protocol, primarily consisting of high dose IV chemotherapy.
- PleurX drain, PEG tube, NG tube, JP drain, and biliary drain management.
- Comfort care management of patients, hospice patients.

Methodist Specialty & Transplant Hospital (February 8, 2016 – June 2017)
RN Level II (Charge Nurse) – Full time Weekends Only – Surgical 5th Floor

Experience on a fast paced post-surgical acute care unit, 39 bed floor as a charge nurse. Surgical procedures and patient management varied in genitourinary (nephrectomies, cystectomies, TURP, ureteral stent placement's, kidney stone removal), vascular (Banding, creation of new AV fistulas, arteriograms, amputations, hemicolectomies, ostomy placements), bariatric procedures, (R-N-Y, gastric sleeves, lap band, abscess drainage), gynecological, plastic surgeries (full body lifts, breast reconstruction post mastectomy) oral & maxillofacial, post-transplant kidney patients.

Nursing Duties included:

- Obtaining history and physical, behavior, cultural, and health concerns from patient and family.M
- Obtain objective physical data.
- Assessed clinical data from diagnostic studies and previous records.
- Monitoring patient vital signs.
- Drawing and reviewing labs, calling in critical lab values to physicians.
- Administering medications and titrating drips (heparin, insulin, morphine, dilaudid), titrating feeding tube feeds for bariatric patients, as needed per hospital protocol and per physician orders.
- PleurX drain, chest tube, NG tube, Peg Tube feeding, penrose drain, JP drain, hemovac drain, and biliary drain management.
- Nurse leader rounding.

STAR Vascular Access Center (August 31, 2016 – September 2017)
Vascular Access RN – Per Diem

Experience in interventional Nephrology clinic setting, procedures included fistulograms and angioplasty of dialysis access's as well and placing stents, inserting temporary and permanent dialysis catheters, insertion and removal of mediports, insertion and removal of peritoneal dialysis catheters, and arteriograms. Requirements: conscious sedation certified and ACLS certified.

Nursing Duties included:

Pre-procedure:

- Pre-procedure assessment of primarily ESRD patients
- Obtaining vital signs and 3 lead ECG
- Current medication record, history and physical if new patients
- Obtaining IV access depending procedure to be performed or accessing temp and perm catheter for IV access
- Notify MD of any abnormal or changes in vital signs.
- Reporting to MD if patient has allergy to contrast or shellfish and patient did not take 3 day pre-procedure allergy prep.

Intra-procedure:

- Connect patient to heart monitor and obtain heart rhythm on monitor
- Obtaining, monitoring, and charting vital signs throughout procedure and notify physician of abnormal vital signs and or heart rhythm during procedure if applicable
- Safely administer conscious sedation medication per physician's order, Fentanyl and Versed used, maintain comfort for patient during procedure
- Administration of reversal medications as prescribed by physician
- Assisting on placing dressings and or sutures if applicable during procedure

Post-procedure:

- Monitoring patient's vital signs, post 3 lead ECG obtained
- Monitor for bleeding of access site
- Provide hemostasis per physician's orders
- Provide pain management as well as administer pain medication and anti-emetics per physician orders
- Call in prescriptions for patient's for new medications per physician orders

NURSING EDUCATION

Galen College of Nursing, State of Texas. Registered Nurse, Licensure received on February 4, 2016.

Current Texas RN License: (expires 08/31/2023)

BLS: Expires September 2022

ACLS: Expires September 2022

Technical Abilities

- Bilingual: Spanish (speak, read, and write)
- Excellent communication and customer service skills
- Ability to work autonomously, set priorities according to patient needs, and make independent decisions of complex nature within nursing scope.
- Ability to work in a team environment
- Excellent interpersonal and patient education skills