Work Experience

Registered Nurse, Cardiac Stepdown

Ascension Resurrection Hospital - Chicago, IL

June 2022 to September 2022

Resurrection Hospital was my second placement as an agency nurse. The cardiac step-down unit was a challenging unit and I was able to really test my skills as a nurse in this position.

Accomplishment: I was able to take the skills I learned in my previous role and successfully apply them to this position.

Registered Nurse (RN) Cardiac Stepdown/Ortho

Aya Healthcare/ Alexian Brothers Medical Center - Elk Grove Village, IL

March 2022 to June 2022

This was my first foray into agency nursing and working in a fast-paced environment with a very short orientation really allowed me to showcase how much I have learned and grown as a nurse since the beginning of my nursing career.

Accomplishment: I was able to successfully work on a unit I had no previous experience on and gain new skills and knowledge that I can utilize in all of my future nursing positions.

Registered Nurse (RN) Ortho/Tele/PACU/Rehab

Swedish Covenant Hospital - Chicago, IL

June 2019 to December 2021

As a new RN, this position gave me the opportunity to start my career in a hospital setting and over the two and a half years I worked there as a nurse, I was able to gain experience on multiple units and learn about many different nursing specialties.

Accomplishment: Within the first two months of working as an RN, I earned a rising star award for exceptional patient care.

Certified Nursing Assistant Ortho/Tele

Swedish Covenant Hospital - Chicago, IL

April 2017 to June 2019

This was my first CNA position and I have gained so many skills and learned so much from it. I have learned so much about patient care, safety, different skills such as EKG and Accu check, and how each unit I've worked in is run. This was a wonderful beginning to my career.

Accomplishment: 100% success rate in ambulating patients without falls by adhering to safety policies.
