AMIAYA R FORTENBERRY

LICENSED PRACTICAL NURSE

ABOUT ME

I am a quiet person I tend to shy around simple things but once I have been out of my shell, I am a joy to be around and one thing I am confident in is the fact I have lots of compassion to share amongst others. In my free time I love read and write poetry and hang with my loved ones with a good movie to watch. I have been in the healthcare field since my senior year in high-school.
