

Tara Radatti, RN

610-960-4570

191909

2916 Forest St. Denver CO 80207

tararadatti@gmail.com

Professional Experience

Surgical Care Affiliates

3/15/22-present

PACU, RN PRN

Provides direct care of surgical and procedural patients in a post recovery unit, specifically in an Ambulatory Care Setting. Implements patient safety, comfort and care while Caring out all interventions per surgical setting while keeping privacy and adhering to HIPAA Standards. Initiates infusions in the recovery room as ordered. Assists Anesthesiologists with Conscious Sedation while assessing Cardiac, Pulmonary and Circulation parameters during surgical procedures. At times, assist the physicians in the procedure rooms with various tasks, starting IV's, and surgical dressing changes

Infectious Disease Consultants

11/28/16 to 10/15/21

Infusion Specialist, RN

Works closely with Physicians implementing, teaching and administering intravenous antibiotics in an outpatient setting. Provides education on outcomes with therapy, medication administration, and line maintenance in the home setting. Monitors clinic patients' blood work and assesses for potential side effects with antibiotic. Reconstitutes medications with sterile protocol under the supervision of a Pharmacist. Works closely with home health agencies and pharmacies ensuring patient safety and compliance.

Healthtrust

8/13-11/28/16

8/2011-11-2028

Registered Nurse, PACU and ICU

Provides care to critically ill patients in surrounding area hospitals. Close monitoring, recognition and interventions while recovering post-operative patients. Emphasis on the titration of cardiopulmonary drips, invasive procedures, cardiac monitoring and ventilator support. Collaboratively works with surgeons, pulmonologists and cardiologists. Carries out orders, interventions and provides education to patients and families.

Rose Medical Center

9/09-8/13

Registered Nurse, Intensive Care Unit

Provided care for patients requiring continuous cardiac monitoring and ventilator support in an intensive care setting. Facilitated recovery process in the pre/post-operative state performed hourly assessments while carrying out plan of care. Close monitoring and recognition of early

Tara Radatti, RN

610-960-4570

191909

2916 Forest St. Denver CO 80207

tararadatti@gmail.com

sepsis, Pneumonia and HAI. Strict adherence to protocols while carrying out evidence based practices.

Amerita

7/12-2/13

Infusion Nurse

Administer fluids, medications and antibiotics while maintaining central venous catheters lines for patients in their home. Blood draws, lab follow up on weekly basis for post bone marrow transplant patients. Refill, maintain and educate patients on pain pumps and usage.

Proficiencies/Skills

- Cardiac/hemodynamics: EKG monitoring, post catheterization/sheath removal, flow-track/Nicom, LAP, CVP monitoring and fluid replacement, initiation of hypothermic post anoxic injury, arterial line management, Pulmonary Artery Catheterization management
- Pulmonary: Intubation, Ventilator care and support/VAP protocol
- Procedures: A-line and central venous catheter placement, IV therapy, thoracentesis, chest tube placement, Lumbar punctures, /Codman drain and bolt placement
- Neuro: ICP/ventriculostomy monitoring, stroke protocol and assessments
- Renal: CCRT trained; preparation for peritoneal and hemodialysis

Education

ADN, School of Nursing
Community College of Denver,

May, 2009
Denver, CO

Bachelor of Arts, Undergrad
Lock Haven University

1997-99
Lock Haven, PA

Excellent References furnished upon request